SUBORDINATE LEGISLATION (JERSEY) LAW 1960

A LAW to make provision with regard to subordinate legislation

Commencement [see endnotes]

1 States may annul subordinate enactments to which this Law applies

Where any enactment (hereinafter referred to as the “principal enactment”) provides that this Law shall apply to any enactment (hereinafter referred to as the “subordinate enactment”) passed in the exercise of a power conferred by the principal enactment, then, subject to any special provisions contained in the principal enactment, the subordinate enactment shall be laid before the States as soon as may be after it is made and if the States, at any time thereafter resolve that it be annulled, it shall cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything previously done thereunder or to the passing of a new subordinate enactment.²

2 Application of Law

Unless express provision is made to the contrary, this Law shall apply to all subordinate enactments passed or made other than by the States.³

3 Citation

This Law may be cited as the Subordinate Legislation (Jersey) Law 1960.
