- (1A) Stamp duty in respect of a chargeable document shall be collected by the designated officer described in the fifth column of a table in Schedule 1, 2 or 3 opposite that description of document and paid to the Treasurer of the States in such manner as the Treasurer may require.⁴
- (1B) Stamp duty paid to the Treasurer under paragraph (1A) shall accrue to the annual income of the States.⁵
- (2) ⁶

- (4) ⁸
- (5) Where a chargeable document contains or relates to several items, separate stamp duty shall be payable in respect of each item as if it were contained in a separate chargeable document.
- (6) Where a chargeable document is made for any consideration in respect of which stamp duty is payable and for any other valuable consideration, separate stamp duty shall be payable in respect of each consideration as if it related to a separate chargeable document.
- (7) In any case where the Schedule makes no provision for the fee to be taken, the amount of stamp duty payable, and the manner of payment thereof, may be determined by the Bailiff.⁹
- (8) ¹⁰

3 Regulations

The States may by Regulations amend Schedules 1, 2 and 3.¹¹

4 Mode of calculating stamp duty in respect of foreign currency

- (1) Where stamp duty is payable in relation to any item in respect of any currency other than sterling, the amount payable shall be calculated on the equivalent value in sterling of the money according to the rate of exchange prevailing at the relevant date.
- (2) Evidence of the rate of exchange prevailing on the relevant date may be given by a written certificate signed by an officer of any bank in Jersey.
- (3) In this Article “relevant date” means –

- (a) in applications for the grant of probate or administration the date of the death of the deceased person; or
- (b) in any other case the date on which the duty is to be paid.

5 Stamp duty in cases of grant of probate or administration

- (1) Where a deceased person was, at the time of his or her death, domiciled in Jersey, stamp duty payable under this Law in respect of the net value of his or her personal estate shall be payable in respect of the net value of such estate wherever situate.
- (2) Where a deceased person was, at the time of his or her death, domiciled outside Jersey, stamp duty payable under this Law in respect of the net value of his or her personal estate shall be payable in respect of the net value of such estate within the jurisdiction of the Court.
- (3) Where any person on applying for a grant of probate or administration has paid too much stamp duty as a result of over-estimating the net value of the personal estate of the deceased, such person may, within 6 months after the true net value of such personal estate has been ascertained, deliver to the Greffier a corrective affidavit as to its true net value.
- (4) Where the Greffier has received an affidavit under paragraph (3) and is satisfied that too much stamp duty has in fact been paid, he or she shall deliver to the applicant a certificate authorizing the Treasurer of the States to reimburse to him or her the amount by which the stamp duty originally paid exceeds the stamp duty properly payable, and, on presentation of such certificate, the Treasurer of the States shall reimburse such amount accordingly.
- (5) Where a person on applying for a grant of probate or administration has paid too little stamp duty as a result of under-estimating the net value of the personal estate of the deceased, such person shall, within 6 months after the true net value of such personal estate has been ascertained, deliver to the Greffier a corrective affidavit as to the true net value of the personal estate of the deceased, and the difference between the amount of stamp duty paid and the amount of stamp duty properly payable shall be paid by that person.¹²
- (6) In the exercise of its jurisdiction under Article 2(1) of the Interest on Debts and Damages \(Jersey\) Law 1996 to include interest on any sum awarded in proceedings brought by the Treasurer of the States for the recovery of stamp duty, a court may, if it thinks fit, order that the interest shall run from any specified date that is not earlier than the date of the grant of probate or administration.

6 Reduction or remission of stamp duty¹³

Subject to Article 13 of the Taxation \(Land Transactions\) \(Jersey\) Law 2009, the designated officer may reduce or remit any stamp duty set out in the Schedule in any case where it would, in his or her opinion, be just to do so and, notwithstanding Article 10, his or her decision shall be final.

6A 146B Reduction of stamp duty where immovable property purchased under approved Assisted Ownership Scheme¹⁵

- (1) Where a first-time buyer purchases immovable property under an Assisted Ownership Scheme and the conditions set out in paragraph (2) are met, the amount of stamp duty payable is that set out in item 13(b) in a table in paragraph 3 of Schedule 1, calculated as if the affordable price were the gross value of the property.
- (2) The conditions are that the Assisted Ownership Scheme has been approved by the Minister for Housing and –
 - (a) the property has been allocated to the purchaser through the Affordable Housing Gateway administered by the Minister for Housing; or
 - (b) the Scheme has been approved by the Minister for Treasury and Resources.¹⁶
- (3) The affordable price is the proportion of the gross value of the property that is funded by the purchaser, whether or not secured by one or more simple conventionnel hypothecs, or other security.

7 Exemption from payment of stamp duty on financial grounds

- (1) The Viscount may grant, on such conditions as he or she thinks fit, a certificate exempting an indigent person from payment of stamp duty for any chargeable document if –
 - (a) the application is made in respect of proceedings in the Family Division; or
 - (b) the application is made in respect of any other proceedings and is accompanied by a statement of the material facts and of the points of law relied on and the Viscount is satisfied that the indigent person has prima facie a good cause of action or, as the case may be, a good defence.¹⁷
- (2) The Viscount may require the indigent person to make an affidavit in support of the Viscount's application.
- (3) Where a certificate granted under paragraph (1) is produced to a designated officer in relation to the proceedings to which the certificate relates, no stamp duty shall be payable for any chargeable document to which the certificate relates.¹⁸

8 Registration of chargeable documents and grant of probate or administration

- (1) A chargeable document shall not be registered in the Public Registry or with the Royal Court unless the Greffier is satisfied that the correct amount of stamp duty payable in respect of such chargeable document has been or will be paid.¹⁹
- (2) Proof of the registration of a chargeable document shall, for purposes of any legal proceedings, be deemed sufficient evidence that the stamp duty payable thereon has been paid.
- (3) ²⁰

- (4) The net value of the personal estate of the deceased shall be sworn in the oath leading to the grant of probate or administration and the Greffier shall not allow probate or administration to be issued unless he is she is satisfied that the correct amount of stamp duty payable under this Law in respect of the estate has been or will be paid.²¹

8A Relevant properties: statements of information²²

- (1) Where a chargeable document relates to a relevant contract, the document must be accompanied by statements by the person to whom the property is transferred indicating –
- (a) whether the property is a dwelling acquired for use as the main residence of that person; and
 - (b) whether the property is a dwelling acquired for the purpose of it forming part of the stock of a trade taxable under Article 51(1)(b) of the Income Tax \(Jersey\) Law 1961.
- (2) The statement must include a declaration by the person to whom the property is transferred that the statement is, to the best of that person’s knowledge and belief, true, complete and correct.

 - (c) entry (h);
 - (d) entry (j);
 - (e) entry (k);
 - (f) entry (l).

9 Refund of stamp duty

- (1) Save as provided by paragraph (2), where any chargeable document for which stamp duty has been paid is not used, the Treasurer of the States shall refund the value of the stamp duty that has been paid.²³
- (2) No refund may be made –
- (a) in respect of a billet which has been cassé; or
 - (b) in respect of stamp duty paid in accordance with items 2, 4, 4A, 5, 7, 11, 17, 18, 27, 28, 30, 31, 35, 35A, 36, 38, 40A, 42 and 47 in paragraph 3 (tables of judicial fees) of Schedule 1 regardless of whether a hearing ever takes place.²⁴
- (3) Despite paragraph (2)(b), if on the application of the person who has paid the stamp duty within 12 months of the payment, the designated officer considers that the particular circumstances would make it just to do so, that officer may reduce or remit the whole or part of that duty.²⁵

- (4) Despite Article 10, the decision of the designated officer under paragraph (3) is final.²⁶

10 Determinations and appeals

- (1) Whenever it appears necessary to the designated officer to do so, he or she shall determine whether stamp duty is payable and the amount of such duty.
- (1A) If the designated officer is of the opinion that the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, of a transaction or combination or series of transactions giving rise to a chargeable document is the avoidance or reduction of a person's liability to pay stamp duty, the designated person may determine the amount of stamp duty payable to counteract such avoidance or reduction of liability.²⁷
- (1B) No determination shall be made under paragraph (1A) if the person shows to the satisfaction of the designated officer that the purpose of avoiding or reducing liability to pay stamp duty was not the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, of the transaction or the combination or series of transactions.²⁸
- (2) Subject to Article 6 and Article 9(4), any person aggrieved by a determination of the designated officer under paragraph (1) or (1A) may appeal to the Inferior Number of the Royal Court within one month of such determination on the basis of an error of fact or law.²⁹
