Victoria, chapter ninety-four, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new Parish of All Saints, Jersey, and of the new Parish of Saint Andrew, Jersey, both in the island of Jersey and in the diocese of Winchester.

Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the nineteenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-third day of the same month, a district chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate in the parish of Saint Helier, in the said island of Jersey and in the said diocese of Winchester, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Jersey'.²

And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-second day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-fifth day of the same month, a district chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate in the said parish of Saint Helier, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Jersey'.³

And whereas the said district chapelry of All Saints, Jersey, and the said district chapelry of Saint Andrew, Jersey, have under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become new parishes of the character contemplated by that Act, by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the above mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new Parish of All Saints, Jersey, and of the said new Parish of Saint Andrew, Jersey, shall be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

NOW THEREFORE with the consent of the Right Reverend Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new Parish of All Saints, Jersey and of the said new Parish of Saint Andrew, Jersey, shall be altered so that all that portion of the said new Parish of All Saints, Jersey, which is described in the schedule here-under written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new Parish of Saint Andrew, Jersey.

The Schedule to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

The territory to be dissevered from the new Parish of All Saints, Jersey, in the island of Jersey and in the diocese of Winchester, and to be annexed to the new Parish of Saint Andrew, Jersey, in the said island and diocese, being : – All that portion of the said new parish of All Saints, Jersey, which is bounded upon all sides as follows, that is to say : Upon the south-east by the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Jersey, upon the south-west by the sea, upon the west by the parish of Saint Lawrence, upon the north-west partly by the last mentioned parish and partly by the parish of Saint John, upon the north by the last mentioned parish, upon the east partly by the parish of Trinity, partly by the parish of Saint Helier, and partly by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Helier from the said new parish of All Saints, Jersey, at the junction of Old Saint John’s Road with Westmount Road, and extending thence first south-westward, then eastward, and then south-eastward along the middle of Westmount Road for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Old Saint John’s Road and with the road called or known as Cheapside, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints, Jersey, from the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Jersey.”

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the Patron and to the Incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation, and such Patron and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.
