SCHEDULE⁴

(Regulation 2(1))

DISCIPLINE CODE

1 Interpretation

In this Schedule “officers” means members of the Honorary Police.

2 Honesty and integrity

It is of paramount importance that the public has faith in the honesty and integrity of officers. Officers should, therefore, be open and truthful in their dealings; avoid being improperly beholden to any person or institution and discharge their duties with integrity.

3 Fairness and impartiality

Officers have a particular responsibility to act with fairness and impartiality in all their dealings with the public and their colleagues.

4 Politeness and tolerance

Officers should treat members of the public and colleagues with courtesy and respect, avoiding abusive or deriding attitudes or behaviour. In particular, officers must avoid: favouritism of an individual or group; all forms of harassment, victimization or unreasonable discrimination; and overbearing conduct to a colleague, particularly to one junior in rank or service.

5 Use of force and abuse of authority

Officers must not use more force than is reasonable, nor should they abuse their authority.

6 Performance of duties

Officers should be conscientious and diligent in the performance of their duties. If absent through sickness or injury, they should avoid activities likely to retard their return to duty.

7 Lawful orders, directives, etc.

The Honorary Police is a disciplined body. Unless there is good and sufficient cause to do otherwise, officers must obey all lawful orders and directives and abide by the provisions of the Honorary Police (Jersey) Regulations 1977 and the Police (Honorary Police Complaints and Discipline Procedure) (Jersey) Regulations 2000. Officers should support their colleagues in the execution of their lawful duties, and oppose any improper behaviour, reporting it where appropriate.

8 Confidentiality

Information which comes into the possession of the Honorary Police should be treated as confidential. It should not be used for personal benefit and nor should it be divulged to other parties except in the proper course of police duty. Similarly, officers should respect as confidential information about the policy and operations of the Honorary Police and the Force unless authorized to disclose it in the course of their duties.

9 Criminal offences

Officers must report to the Connétable of the parish in which they serve any proceedings for a criminal offence taken against them. Conviction of a criminal offence may of itself be an offence against discipline.

10 Property

Officers must exercise reasonable care to prevent loss or damage to property (excluding their own property but including police property).

11 Alcohol

- (1) Officers shall not consume any alcohol whilst on duty. An officer is on duty at all times during his or her duty rota except during such times as the officer has, with the prior agreement of, if he or she is a Vingtenier or Constable's officer, the duty Centenier or, if he or she is a Centenier, another Centenier of the parish, been relieved of duty.
- (2) Officers shall not be on duty having consumed alcohol before coming on duty to such an extent that their judgment or ability to perform their duties is likely to be adversely affected or is likely to bring the Honorary Police into disrepute.

12 Appearance

Unless on duties which dictate otherwise, officers should always be well turned out, clean and tidy whilst on duty.

13 General conduct

Whether on or off duty, officers should not behave in a way which is likely to bring discredit upon the Honorary Police.

Notes:

- (a) The duties of those who hold the office of Centenier, Vingtenier or Constable's Officer include the protection of life and property, the preservation of the King's peace, and the prevention and detection of criminal offences. To fulfil these duties they are granted extraordinary powers; the public and the Honorary Police therefore have a right to expect the highest standards of conduct from them.

- (b) This Code sets out the principles which guide officers' conduct. It does not seek to restrict officers' discretion: rather it aims to define the parameters of conduct within which that discretion may be exercised. However, it is important to note that any breach of the principles in this Code may result in the preferment of disciplinary charges which, if proved, in a serious case, could involve dismissal.
- (c) This Code applies to the conduct of all officers whilst on duty, or whilst off duty if the conduct is serious enough to indicate that an officer is not fit to be such. It will be applied in a reasonable and objective manner. Due regard will be paid to the degree of negligence or deliberate fault and to the nature and circumstances of an officer's conduct. Where off-duty conduct is in question, this will be measured against the generally accepted standards of the day.
