MEDICINES (HEALTH PROFESSIONALS – EXEMPTION) (JERSEY) ORDER 2001<sup>1</sup>

THE HEALTH AND SOCIAL SERVICES COMMITTEE in pursuance of Articles 56(1) and 57(4)(a) of the Medicines \(Jersey\) Law 1995, orders as follows –

Commencement [see endnotes]

1 Exemption

- (1) Articles 51, 52 and 57(2) of the Medicines \(Jersey\) Law 1995 shall have effect subject to the exemption specified in paragraph (2).
- (2) A relevant health professional authorized by an administration of the States to do so may sell, supply or administer a medicinal product in accordance with a direction given by the Minister.<sup>2</sup>
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (2), a direction given under that paragraph may specify –
  - (a) the period during which it has effect;
  - (b) the clinical criteria under which a person is eligible for treatment under the direction;
  - (c) any class of person excluded from treatment under the direction;
  - (d) any circumstance in which further advice must be sought from a doctor or dentist;
  - (e) any follow up action that must be taken in a specified circumstance;
  - (f) when a person must be referred for medical advice;
  - (g) details of any record to be kept of the sale, supply or administration of a medicinal product in accordance with the direction;
  - (h) the medicinal product to which the direction relates; and
  - (i) details in respect of the sale, supply or administration of that medicinal product as specified in paragraph (4).<sup>3</sup>
- (4) Those details in respect of the sale, supply or administration of the medicinal product are –

- (a) the clinical situation in which it may be sold, supplied or administered;
  - (b) the pharmaceutical form in which it may be sold, supplied or administered;
  - (c) the strength or maximum strength at which it may be sold, supplied or administered;
  - (d) the dosage or maximum dosage at which it may be administered;
  - (e) the route by which it may be administered;
  - (f) its frequency of administration;
  - (g) any minimum or maximum period during which it may be sold, supplied or administered;
  - (h) any restriction on the quantity that may be sold, supplied or administered on any one occasion;
  - (i) any warning or other relevant information applicable to the medicinal product and the manner in which the warning or information is to be given or provided.<sup>4</sup>
- (5) In this Article –
- “administration of the States” has the same meaning as in Article 1 of the Employment of States of Jersey Employees \(Jersey\) Law 2005;
- “health professional” means a person authorized to practise in Jersey as an ambulance paramedic, optometrist, or orthoptist or as a chiropodist, specialist community public health nurse, nurse, midwife, pharmacist, physiotherapist or radiographer;
- “relevant health professional” means a health professional who in that capacity works for an administration of the States under –
- (a) a contract of employment with the States Employment Board;
  - (b) a contract for services for an administration of the States;
  - (c) a contract of employment with, or for services for, an agency that has contracted with an administration of the States for the provision of services; or
  - (d) a contract of employment with, or for services for, an organisation that has entered into an agreement with an administration of the States to sell, supply or administer a medicinal product in accordance with this Order.<sup>5</sup>
