(10) Any party to the appeal may appear in person or be represented by any other person whom he may have authorised to represent him.

(11) Any party to the appeal may produce to the Commissioner evidence additional to that before the Board, if he has served the Board and the other parties to the hearing before the Board with ten days' notice of his intention to do so, setting forth the substance of the new evidence; and any witness giving new evidence before the Commissioner may be examined as to that new evidence by the other parties to the appeal:

Provided that without serving such notice as aforesaid any party to the appeal may produce evidence in rebuttal of evidence produced in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph.

(c) Any sum payable by virtue of an order under sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph shall, if the county court so orders, be recoverable by execution issued from the county court or otherwise as if payable under an order of that court; and subject to county court rules, an application for an order of the county court under this paragraph may be made ex parte.

(d) The powers of the county court under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph may be exercised by the Registrar.

(e) In relation to an appeal which has been heard by a Commissioner in Scotland the Minister shall have the like power to award expenses as if he were an arbiter under a submission and the parties to the appeal were parties to the submission, and any award of expenses by the Minister under this sub-paragraph may be recorded for execution in the Books of Council and Session and shall be enforceable accordingly.

(17) The Minister shall communicate his order (including his order as to costs, if any) and the reasons for it, if given, in writing to the Board together with a copy of the Commissioner's report. The Board shall –

- (b) for the grant of a licence, the applicant shall pay, on the first day on which the licence authorises a flight, the fee specified in the third column of the Table opposite the description of the licence granted:

- (e) upon making an application for the revocation or suspension of a licence of which he is not the holder the applicant shall pay the fee specified in the second column of the Table opposite the description of the licence, taking into account any variations which may have been made, and if his application is granted he shall thereupon pay the fee specified in the third column of the Table opposite that description;
- (f) the holder of a licence shall pay in respect thereof the annual fee specified in the fourth column of the Table opposite the description of the licence, taking into account any variations which may have been made; payment shall first become due upon the expiration of the period of one year after the first day on which the licence authorises a flight and each subsequent payment shall become due at intervals of one year after that date, but in the case of a licence granted in pursuance of an Order made under section 2(6) of the Act, payment shall become due on 30th March each year; each payment of an annual fee shall relate to the year following the day on which it becomes due, and, if the fee exceeds ten pounds, may be reduced by the Board by one-twelfth for every month by which the unexpired portion of the term of the licence is less than one year;

- (h) in determining for the purposes of this paragraph the first day on which a licence authorises a flight no regard shall be had to any provision of the licence which renders it invalid by reason of failure to pay a fee.

Variation of licences: Special provisions

3.-(1) The Board may reduce by such amount as they think fit the fee in respect of an application by the holder of a licence for its variation, and for the variation of the licence, if, in their opinion, it is proper to do so by reason of the disproportion between the amount of the fee and the benefit sought by the application or conferred by the variation, as the case may be.

(2) In a case where a licence is varied with effect in the course of a year to which an annual fee relates, the amount of the annual fee shall be adjusted proportionately so as to take account of any resulting variation in the description of the licence; and any additional annual fee shall be paid by the holder of the licence, or any refund of the annual fee shall be made to him (whichever shall be appropriate), on the date on which the variation in the description of the licence comes into force.

(3) If the Board are of the opinion that an application for variation of a licence is in substance an application for a licence for a new service, they may, on varying the licence, direct that for the purpose of the annual fee, the licence is to be treated as if it were several licences of such number and description as they may specify in the direction and that payment of the annual fees shall become due on such dates as they may so specify.

(4) Subject to sub-paragraph (1) hereof, where an application for variation of a licence relates solely to a provision as to the tariff to be charged the fee to be paid for that application shall be £2 0s. 0d. and, if no hearing has been held by the Board in connection with that application, no fee shall be payable for the variation.

Refund of Fees

4.-(1) Where an application for a licence or the variation, revocation or suspension thereof is withdrawn before a notice of a hearing in connection with such application has been published by the Board in their official record the Board may refund such part of the application fee as they think proper in the circumstances of the case.

(2) Where the Board are obliged by section 2(3) of the Act to refuse an application for the grant or variation of a licence they shall refund the whole of the application fee.

(3) Where a licence has been revoked or suspended in the year next following payment of the fee for the grant of the licence or the year next following payment of the full amount of the annual fee, as the case may be, the Board may refund such part of the fee paid as they think fit in the circumstances of the case.
