(3) The Tribunal shall consider –

- (a) whether the Secretary of State had grounds under regulation 10 for his decision; and
- (b) if the Tribunal is satisfied that he did have such grounds, whether, taking into account all the circumstances, the decision was reasonable.

Constitution of the Tribunal

12.-(1) The Tribunal shall consist of a Chairman and two other members.

(2) The Chairman shall be appointed by the Secretary of State after consultation with the Lord Chancellor.

(3) The other two members shall be appointed by the Secretary of State, who in so doing shall take account of the nature of the activity which is the subject of the permit and the reasons given by him for revoking or suspending the permit if they are related to the nature of the activity.

(4) No member of the Tribunal shall be an officer of the Crown.

(5) The Secretary of the Tribunal (hereinafter referred to as “the Secretary”) shall be such person as may be appointed for this purpose from time to time by the Secretary of State.

Provided that the Tribunal may waive the time limit for lodging the appeal if it is satisfied that in the circumstances the appellant could not reasonably be expected to lodge (or to have lodged) his appeal within the period prescribed.

(2) The Secretary, on being informed of the appeal, shall without delay fix a convenient date and place for the hearing of it and shall duly inform the appellant and the Secretary of State not later than 14 days before the date of the hearing, or such shorter time as the parties and the Tribunal may agree.

(3) The Tribunal shall conduct the hearing in such manner as it considers most suitable to the clarification of the issues before it and generally to the just handling of the proceedings; and it shall so far as appears to it appropriate seek to avoid formality in its proceedings.

(4) The parties shall be heard in such order as the Tribunal shall determine; they shall be entitled to give evidence, to call witnesses, to question any witnesses and to address the Tribunal both on the evidence and generally on the subject matter of the appeal.

(5) The Tribunal may determine the appeal without an oral hearing unless either party requests one.

(6) The oral hearings of the Tribunal shall be in public, unless the Tribunal decides otherwise with regard to a particular hearing or part of a hearing at which evidence to be presented would disclose intimate personal or financial circumstances, commercially sensitive information, information communicated or obtained in confidence or matters concerning national security or diplomatic relations, and the interests of justice do not require such evidence to be heard in public.

(7)(a) The appellant shall have the right to be represented in person or by counsel, solicitor or advocate or, with the permission of the Tribunal, by any other representative as he may select.

(b) The Secretary of State may be represented by any person instructed in that behalf.

(8) The Tribunal may require any witness to give evidence on oath or affirmation and for that purpose there may be administered an oath or affirmation in due form.

(9) In the event of a difference of opinion amongst the members of the Tribunal, the decision of the majority shall become the finding of the Tribunal.

(10) The decision of the Tribunal shall be notified to the parties in writing by the Secretary and shall include the reasons for the finding.

(11) The Tribunal shall not have any power to order the payment of any costs or expenses.

(12) When the Tribunal is not sitting the Chairman may, if he considers it necessary or expedient, exercise the powers of the Tribunal on behalf of the other members, other than the decision of an appeal (not being a decision on an unopposed appeal).

(13) A member of the Council on Tribunals or of the Scottish Committee of the Council on Tribunals may attend any oral hearing, including any held in private, and may be present during the deliberations of the Tribunal, but shall take no part in those deliberations.

The Area consists of the whole of the northernmost rock exposure on the east side of Taylor Glacier, MacRobertson Land (Lat. 67°26'S; Long. 60°50'E). The rookery is located on a low lying rock outcrop in the south-west corner of a bay formed by Taylor Glacier to the west, the polar ice cap to the south and the islands of Colbeck Archipelago to the east. The Area is surrounded by sea ice to the north and east. The Area is some 90 km west of Mawson station. There is ice-free terrain adjacent to the glacier on the western boundary and to the south the rock rises steeply to meet the ice of the plateau.

There are no boundary markers since the Area is easily defined by its natural features.

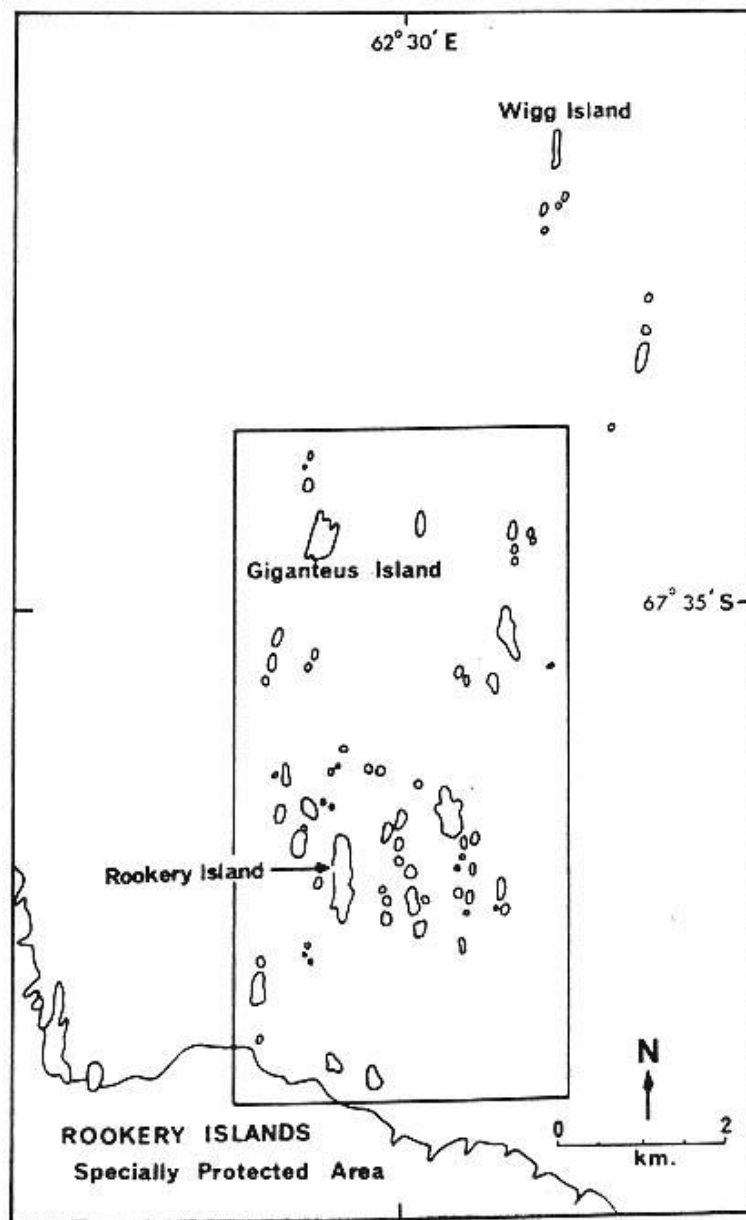

Specially Protected Area No. 2 Rookery Islands, Holme Bay, MacRobertson Land Lat. 67°37'S; Long. 62°33'E

The Rookery Islands are a group of small islands and rocks in the southwestern part of Holme Bay, MacRobertson Land, approximately 10 km to the west of Mawson station. The Area comprises the islands and rocks lying within the rectangular area shown on the maps below, the general location of which is latitude 67°37'S, longitude 62°33'E. There are no boundary markers delimiting the site.

There are approximately 75 small islands. They range in size from small rocks which barely remain above water at high tide to the largest islands of the group which are Giganteus Island (approximately 400 m long, 400 m wide and 30 m high) and Rookery Island which is of similar size but slightly more elongated. Rookery Island is the highest of the group reaching an altitude of 62 m.

They are located 5 km and 0.6 km respectively to the west of Robinson Ridge, south of Casey Station. Odbert Island is approximately 2.5 km long and 0.5 km wide. In some years the island remains joined to Robinson Ridge on the mainland by sea ice. Ardery Island is a steep ice-free island approximately 1 km long and 0.5 km wide, with an east-west orientation.

The Seal Islands are composed of small islands and skerries located approximately 7 km north of the northwest corner of Elephant Island, South Shetland Islands. The Seal Islands Protected Place includes the entire Seal Islands group, which is defined as Seal Island plus any land or rocks exposed at mean low tide within a distance of 5.5 km of the point of highest elevation on Seal Island. Seal Island is the largest island of the group, and is situated at Lat. 60°59'S, Long. 55°23'W.

The Seal Islands cover an area approximately 5.7 km from east to west and 5 km from north to south. Seal Island is joined to the adjacent island to the west by a narrow sand bar that is approximately 50 m long.

No. 2 Cape Shirreff and the San Telmo Islands, South Shetland Islands Lat. 62°27'S; Long. 60°47'W

Cape Shirreff is a low, ice-free peninsula towards the western end of the north coast of Livingston Island, South Shetland Islands, situated at Lat. 62°27'S, Long. 60°47'W, between Barclay Bay and Hero Bay. San Telmo Island is the largest of a small group of ice-free rock islets, approximately 2 km west of Cape Shirreff. Cape Shirreff is approximately 3 km from north to south and 0.5 to 1.2 km from east to west.

No man-made markers indicate the limits of the Protected Place, the boundaries being defined by natural features (i.e. coastlines or glacial margins). Its southern boundary is bordered by a permanent glacial ice barrier, which is located at the narrowest part of the Cape. The eastern side of the base of the Cape has two beaches with a total length of about 600 m. Above this the extremity of the Cape has a rocky barrier about 150 m long. The western side is formed by almost continuous cliffs 10 to 15 m high. Near the southern base of the Cape on the western side is a small sandy beach approximately 50 m long.
