Jersey Law 16/1998 Probate (Jersey) Law 1998

mutandis” as if it were hearing an action for the setting aside (“cassation et annulation”) of a will of movable estate.

(8) Where a caveator appearing in answer to a summons contests the right of the person who has applied for a grant to obtain such grant and alleges a prior right in himself or some other person, the Inferior Number shall determine who is entitled to the grant and authorize the Judicial Greffier to make a grant to that person.

(9) Where a caveator appearing in answer to a summons raises an objection to the making of a grant other than an objection to which paragraph (5) or (8) applies, the Inferior Number shall hear the objection and make such order as the circumstances may require.

(3) Where a matter is referred to it under paragraph (2), the Inferior Number may, on exceptional grounds, name a person, other than the person named as executor in the will, as entitled to a grant as executor dative, and authorize the Judicial Greffier to make such a grant to him.
