- (6) The stamp or impression denoting payment of postage or fees shall be placed in such a position on the parcel as the Committee may consider appropriate.

11 Treatment of irregular parcels

- (1) Save as otherwise provided in this Order, any parcel which is found when in the post not to comply with a provision of the law of the country or place in which the parcel was posted or to which it is addressed or through which it may pass (including the Law and this Order), or not to be accompanied by a document required by any such provision, or to have been posted otherwise than in accordance with Article 9(1) of this Order may be –
  - (a) detained, returned or given up to the sender; or
  - (b) dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as the Committee may think fit.

particular case, not exceeding the total of the charges which would have been payable in respect of each of the separate parcels or other postal packets contained therein if they had been posted singly without prepayment of postage in Jersey addressed to the country or place of origin of the parcel.

12 Charges on incoming parcels

There shall be charged on an incoming parcel and paid by the addressee on its delivery the amount of any postage deficiency and any unpaid fees and charges which are payable in respect of the parcel under any enactment in force in Jersey or the law or regulations of any country or place from or through which the parcel has been transmitted.

13 Return of outgoing parcels

Where an outgoing parcel is received back from a country or place outside Jersey for return to the sender in accordance with the relative postal arrangement there shall be charged on the parcel so received and paid by the sender, whether or not the parcel is returned to the sender –

- (a) the amount of any postage deficiency and any unpaid fees and charges which are payable in respect of the parcel under the Law or any Order made thereunder or under the law or regulations of any country or place from or through which the parcel has been transmitted; and
- (b) postage in respect of the return transmission at such rate and such other charges as the Committee may consider appropriate having regard to the terms of the relative postal arrangement.

14 Withholding of parcels from delivery or return

- (1) The Committee may withhold any incoming parcel from delivery to the addressee, or any outgoing parcel received back in the manner described in Article 13 from return to the sender, until all sums due thereon have been paid.
- (2) Where the sums due in respect of any such parcel, or of parcels on hand for delivery or return to the same person on any one occasion, amount to more than £50, the Committee may give notice to that person accordingly and require that, before such delivery or return is effected, the person should pay the amount due within such period and at such office as shall be specified in such notice.

15 Undeliverable parcels

- (1) Subject to the following paragraphs of this Article, an incoming parcel which cannot be delivered, and an outgoing parcel which is received back from a country or place outside Jersey for return to the sender in accordance with the relative postal arrangement and which cannot be returned to the sender, or in respect of which any sums due thereon under Article 12 or 13 have not been paid within such period as the Committee may consider reasonable, may be dealt with or disposed of as the Committee may think fit.

- (2) Where an incoming parcel which cannot be delivered as originally addressed is forwarded to a substituted address in Jersey which the sender has furnished in accordance with the relevant postal arrangement, there shall be charged on the parcel on its delivery all such sums as are referred to in Article 12, and the following additional postage –
  - (a) if the parcel does not exceed the limit of weight applicable to insular parcels, the postage at the insular rate chargeable on a parcel of the same weight;
  - (b) if the parcel exceeds the said limit of weight, postage at the insular rate chargeable on an ordinary parcel of the greatest weight within that limit, plus such sum not exceeding that amount as the Committee may consider appropriate.
- (3) Where an incoming parcel cannot be delivered within such time as the Committee may consider reasonable, or delivery of it is refused, and subsequently the sender or the addressee requests that the parcel should be delivered, the Committee may if it thinks fit comply with the request and in that event there shall be charged on the parcel and paid by the addressee on its delivery all such sums as are referred to in Article 12, including any further charge incurred if the parcel has already been returned to the country or place of origin, and the additional postage referred to in paragraph (2).

16 Air parcels

- (1) An air parcel shall bear an “Air Mail” label affixed close to the address, or to each address if the parcel is addressed in more than one place.
- (2) A parcel shall be transmissible as an air parcel only if it is addressed to a country or place mentioned in Part 2 of Schedule 1.<sup>12</sup>

17 Surface parcels<sup>13</sup>

A parcel shall be transmissible as a surface parcel only if it is addressed to a country or place mentioned in Part 2 of Schedule 2.

PART 3

POSTAL FACILITIES

18 General

The postal facilities referred to in this Part of this Order may be provided by the Committee at such times, during such periods, at such post offices, in such circumstances, and on such conditions, not being inconsistent with the provisions of this Order, as the Committee may from time to time determine.

19 Express delivery

Upon every outgoing air parcel marked with the word “Express” or “Exprès” to indicate the desire of the sender that the postal packet may be delivered by special messenger, being a parcel addressed to a country or place wherein delivery by special messenger is provided for by the relevant postal arrangement, there shall be charged and prepaid the fee of £1.90.<sup>14</sup>

20 Delivery free of charges

Where the relative postal arrangement so provides, the sender of an outgoing parcel may request that the parcel shall be delivered free of any customs duty, postal fees and charges which would otherwise be payable by the addressee under the law of the country or place of destination, and in such case the following provisions shall apply –

- (a) the sender shall pay at the time of posting such sum as the Committee may require as a deposit in respect of any such customs duty, fees and charges as in the opinion of the Committee might otherwise be so payable and shall sign an undertaking in the specified form to pay to the Committee on demand the aggregate amount of the customs duty, postal fees and charges which are charged in the country or place of destination less the amount of the deposit paid by the sender;
- (b) the sender shall mark on the cover of the parcel either the words “to be delivered free of charges” or the words “Franc de droits”;
- (c) the Committee shall furnish to the sender a certificate of posting bearing an acknowledgement that the said deposit has been paid;
- (d) if the deposit paid exceeds the aggregate amount of the customs duty, postal fees and charges which are charged in the country or place of destination, the Committee shall repay the excess to the sender.

21 Incoming insured parcels<sup>15</sup>

On the delivery of an incoming insured parcel the recipient shall give a written receipt in the prescribed form:

Provided that, where such a receipt is not obtained, the parcel may nevertheless be delivered, or may be withheld and dealt with or disposed of in such a manner as the Committee may think fit.

22 Compensation

- (1) If a parcel, or any article of pecuniary value enclosed in or forming part of a parcel, be lost or damaged whilst in the course of conveyance by post under the provisions of this Order, the Committee may pay such sum as it thinks just to any person or postal administration who in the Committee's opinion establishes a reasonable claim to compensation:

Provided that –

- (a) in the case of an outgoing air parcel the sum payable by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum set out in Part 1 of Schedule 3;
  - (b) in the case of an outgoing surface parcel the sum payable by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum appropriate to the weight of the parcel according to the scale set out in Part 2 of Schedule 3;
  - (c) in the case of an incoming insured parcel the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of £1400 or such lesser sum as, having regard to the insurance fee paid in respect of the parcel, may be specified in the relative postal arrangement.<sup>16</sup>
- (2) Compensation shall not be payable in respect of the loss of or damage to any parcel or any article of pecuniary value enclosed in or forming part of any parcel where –
- (a) an application relating to the parcel is not received, either by the Committee or by the postal administration of the country or place from or to which the parcel was transmitted from the person claiming compensation within one year of the date of posting of the parcel; or
  - (b) the cause of such loss or damage is beyond the control of the Committee and of the postal administration of any country or place where the parcel is at the time of such loss or damage; or
  - (c) the parcel cannot be traced or otherwise accounted for by reason of the destruction of official documents where the cause of such destruction is beyond the control of the Committee and of the postal administration of any other country or place.
- (3) The decision of the Committee on all questions arising between it and any person claiming payment in respect of the loss of or damage to a parcel, or of or to any article enclosed in or forming part thereof, shall be final and conclusive.
- (4) Where compensation has been paid to any person in respect of the loss of a parcel and the parcel subsequently comes into the possession of the Committee, then upon tender of the parcel to that person, whether or not the person accepts it, the person shall repay to the Committee the sum paid by way of compensation or such part thereof as the Committee may determine.<sup>17</sup>

23 Redirection by public

- (1) An incoming parcel may be redirected from its original address, or any substituted address, to the same addressee at any other address either within or outside Jersey if –

- (b) the sender has not forbidden redirection by means of a note to that effect on the address side of the parcel in English or in any other language understood by the postal officers handling the packet; and
    - (c) the parcel does not appear to have been opened or altered otherwise than by the substitution of a new address of the addressee which must not be so placed as to obscure the original writing of the name of the addressee.
  - (2) Subject to paragraph (3), on redirection of an incoming parcel to an address within Jersey, there shall be charged thereon additional postage of an amount equal to the amount which would be charged and payable thereon if it were posted as an insular parcel and, if such additional postage is not prepaid by the person redirecting the parcel, it shall be payable by the addressee on delivery of the parcel and the Committee may withhold delivery unless it is paid.
  - (3) Without prejudice to its general power of remission under Article 25, the Committee may remit the additional postage payable under paragraph (2) where –
    - (a) the parcel is re-posted on the day of or the next business day following, its delivery at the address from which it is re-directed; and
    - (b) it is re-directed to an address served from the same delivery office as the address from which it is re-directed.
  - (4) If the person re-directing an incoming parcel to an address outside Jersey desires that the parcel shall be delivered free of any charge, except any customs duty, fees, and charges of the kind referred to in Article 20, in respect of its transmission consequent upon such re-direction, the person shall pay thereon when re-directing it additional postage of an amount equal to the amount of postage which would be payable thereon if it were posted anew in Jersey to that address.

24 Parcels detained for customs purposes

- (4) A parcel may not be addressed under this Article to an address in Jersey, or in a country or place outside Jersey, unless it is eligible for transmission in Jersey or to the country or place, and complies with the conditions applicable to such transmission.
- (5) Where a parcel is stored by the Committee at a place appointed by it and the Chief Agent of the Impôts while it is awaiting customs clearance or is waiting to be re-addressed in pursuance of an application in that behalf made under paragraph (1)(c) or (d), there shall be charged and paid by the addressee on delivery of the parcel to the addressee, or by the original addressee if the parcel is re-addressed in accordance with paragraph (1)(c) or (d), in addition to any other fees payable under this Order, the following storage fee –
  - (a) where the parcel is stored for a period not exceeding 28 days, £3.30, except that where 2 or more parcels are posted simultaneously to the same address, the fee shall be –

- (6) For the purposes of this Article –
  - (a) a parcel shall be deemed to be stored by the Committee at some place appointed by it and the Chief Agent of the Impôts if and so long as after a customs notice has been sent to the addressee with respect thereto, it is awaiting customs clearance or is waiting to be re-addressed in pursuance of an application in that behalf made under paragraph (1)(c) or (d) and the period of such custody shall be deemed to have begun at the beginning of the day on which the customs notice was sent and the period shall be deemed to terminate at the end of the day on which the customs clearance is granted or if later in the case of a parcel with respect to which such an application has been made, at the end of the day on which the parcel is re-addressed and, in the case of a parcel which has been transferred under paragraph (1)(e), the period of storage shall be deemed to have continued unbroken while it was in the course of transit to the nominated place;
