3 Declaration by candidates for election

A person seeking election as a member of the Honorary Police shall, at the time of his or her nomination, make a declaration in writing to the Connétable of the parish concerned that the person is not disqualified, by virtue of these Regulations or any other enactment, for being so elected.

4 Association of Centeniers and Association of Vingteniers and Constable’s Officers

(1) For the purpose of promoting efficiency, there shall be an Association of Centeniers of which every Centenier shall be a member and an Association of Vingteniers and Constable’s Officers of which every Vingtenier and Constable’s Officer shall be a member.

- (2) Subject to the provisions of the Police Force (Jersey) Law 1974³ and these Regulations, each Association shall make rules for the regulation of its management, proceedings and business, and a code of conduct to be observed by its members.
- (3) Each Association may, at any meeting convened in accordance with its rules, conduct any business which it is in its power to conduct if there are not less than 30 members present, and, subject thereto and to the provisions of paragraph (4) of this Regulation, the decision of a majority of its members present and voting shall be binding on all its members.
- (4) The Attorney General may set aside or vary any decision of either Association.

5 Resignation⁴

A member of the Honorary Police may resign the member's office of his or her own volition only if –
