11A Implementation of Convention²⁴

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Law, the Minister may by Order make provision for giving effect to the Convention, and such provision may include amendments to this Law.
- (2) The text of the Convention (so far as material) is set out in Schedule 2.

- (1) Where, on an application by the Minister, the Court is satisfied in the case of each parent or guardian of the infant that –
 - (a) the person freely, and with full understanding of what is involved, agrees generally and unconditionally to the making of an adoption order; or
 - (b) the person's agreement to the making of an adoption order should be dispensed with on a ground specified in Article 13(2),the Court shall make an order declaring the infant free for adoption.
- (2) No application shall be made under paragraph (1) unless –
 - (a) it is made with the consent of a parent or guardian of an infant; or
 - (b) the Minister is applying for dispensation under paragraph (1)(b) of the agreement of each parent or guardian of the infant, and the infant is in the care of the Minister.
- (3) No agreement required under paragraph (1)(a) shall be dispensed with under paragraph (1)(b) unless the infant is already placed for adoption or the Court is satisfied that it is likely that the infant will be placed for adoption.
- (4) An agreement by the mother of the infant is ineffective for the purposes of this Article if given less than 6 weeks after the infant's birth.
- (5) On the making of an order under this Article parental responsibility for the infant is given to the Minister and Article 20(2) applies as if the order were an adoption order and the Minister was the adopter.²⁸
- (6) Before making an order under this Article, the Court shall satisfy itself, in relation to each parent or guardian of the infant who can be found, that the person has been given an opportunity of making, if the person so wishes, a declaration that he or she prefers not to be involved in future questions concerning the adoption of the infant, and any such declaration shall be recorded by the Court.

- (7) Before making an order under this Article in the case of an infant whose father does not have parental responsibility for the infant, the Court shall satisfy itself in relation to any person claiming to be the father that –
 - (a) the person has no intention of applying within the next 6 months for an order under Article 5 of the Children (Jersey) Law 2002 or a residence order under Article 10 of that Law; or
 - (b) if the person did make any such application, it would be likely to be refused.²⁹
- (8) An order under this Article may be made in respect of an infant who has already been the subject of an adoption order made by a court of competent jurisdiction whether in Jersey or elsewhere.³⁰

12A Progress reports to former parents³¹

- (1) Within 14 days following the date 12 months after the making of an order under Article 12, the Minister, unless he or she has previously by notice to the former parent informed him or her that the infant has been adopted, shall inform that parent by notice –
 - (a) whether the infant has been adopted; and
 - (b) if the infant has not been adopted whether he or she has his or her home with a person with whom he or she has been placed for adoption.
- (2) Where a notice has been given as described in paragraph (1)(b) the Minister shall inform the former parent by notice –
 - (a) if and when the infant is adopted; and
 - (b) if the infant ceases to have his or her home with a person with whom he or she has been placed for adoption.
- (3) If at any time the former parent by notice makes a declaration to the Minister that he or she prefers not to be involved in future questions concerning the adoption of the infant –
 - (a) the Minister shall secure that the declaration is recorded by the Court; and
 - (b) the Minister shall be released from any further requirements under paragraph (2).
- (4) In this Article and Article 12B of this Law “former parent” means any person required to be given an opportunity of making a declaration under Article 12(6) but who did not do so.

12B Revocation of Article 12 order³²

- (1) Where at any time more than 12 months after the making of an order under Article 12 of this Law (an “Article 12 order”), if the infant –
 - (a) has not been adopted; and

- (b) does not have his or her home with a person with whom he or she has been placed for adoption,
- his or her former parent may apply to the Court for an order revoking the Article 12 order on the ground that he or she wishes to resume parental responsibility.
- (2) While an application under this Article is pending the Minister shall not place the infant for adoption without the leave of the Court.
- (3) The revocation of an Article 12 order operates –
- (a) to extinguish the parental responsibility given to the Minister;
- (b) to give parental responsibility to the infant's mother and, where the infant's father and mother were married at the time of the infant's birth, the infant's father; and
- (c) to revive –
- (i) any parental responsibility agreement,
- (ii) any order pursuant to Article 5 of the Children (Jersey) Law 2002 that the father shall have parental responsibility for the infant, and
- (iii) any appointment of a guardian in respect of the infant (whether made by a court or otherwise),
- extinguished by the making of the Article 12 order.
- (4) Subject to paragraph (3)(c), the revocation does not –
- (a) operate to revive –
- (i) any order under the Children (Jersey) Law 2002; or
- (ii) any duty referred to in Article 20(2)(a)(iii) of this Law,
- extinguished by the making of the Article 12 order; or
- (b) affect any person's parental responsibility so far as it relates to the period between the making of the Article 12 order and the date of revocation of that order.
- (5) Subject to paragraph (6), where the Court dismisses an application under this Article on the grounds that to allow it would contravene the principle embodied in Article 3 of this Law –
- (a) the applicant shall not be entitled to make a further application in respect of the infant; and
- (b) the Minister shall be released from the duty of complying further with Article 12A(2) as respects that parent.
- (6) Paragraph (5)(a) shall not apply where the Court gives leave to the former parent to make a further application to revoke the Article 12 order, but such leave shall not be given unless it appears to the Court that because of a change in circumstances or for any other reason it is proper to allow the application to be made.

13 Parental agreement³³

- (1) An adoption order shall not be made unless –
 - (a) the infant is free for adoption by virtue of an order made under Article 12 or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction in any other part of the British Islands; or
 - (b) in the case of each parent or guardian of the infant the Court is satisfied that –
 - (i) the parent or guardian freely, and with full understanding of what is involved, agrees unconditionally to the making of an adoption order, whether or not he or she knows the identity of the applicants, or
 - (ii) the parent or guardian's agreement to the making of the adoption order should be dispensed with on a ground specified in paragraph (2).³⁴
- (2) The grounds mentioned in paragraph (1)(b)(ii) are that the parent or guardian –
 - (a) cannot be found or is incapable of giving agreement;
 - (b) is withholding his or her agreement unreasonably;
 - (c) has persistently failed without reasonable cause to exercise his or her rights, duties, obligations and liabilities as a parent or guardian in respect of the infant;
 - (d) has abandoned or neglected the infant;
 - (e) subject to paragraph (4) has persistently ill-treated the infant;
 - (f) has seriously ill-treated the infant;
 - (g) is incapable of caring for the infant or is of such habits or mode of life as to be unfit to have the care of the infant.³⁵
- (3) Agreement is ineffective for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b)(i) if given by the mother less than 6 weeks after the infant's birth.³⁶
- (4) Paragraph (2)(e) does not apply unless because of the ill-treatment or for other reasons, the rehabilitation of the infant within the household of the parent, or guardian is unlikely.
- (5) Where there has been a finding by a court of competent jurisdiction as to any grounds specified in paragraph (2)(c), (d), (e), (f) or (g) in the course of earlier proceedings to which the parent or guardian was given the opportunity of being a party, that finding shall be sufficient but not conclusive evidence of those grounds.
- (6) Before making an adoption order in the case of an infant whose father does not have parental responsibility for the infant, the Court shall satisfy itself in relation to any person claiming to be the father that –
 - (a) he has no intention of applying within the next 6 months for an order under Article 5 of the Children (Jersey) Law 2002 or a residence order under Article 10 of that Law; or
 - (b) if he did make any such application, it would be likely to be refused.³⁷

14 Evidence of consent of parent or guardian

- (1) Where a parent or guardian of an infant does not attend in the proceedings on an application for an adoption order for the purpose of giving his or her consent to the making of the order, a document signifying his or her consent to the making of such an order shall –
 - (a) if the person in whose favour the order is to be made is named in the document or (where the identity of that person is not known to the consenting party) is distinguished therein in the prescribed manner; and
 - (b) if the document is attested by a person of any such class as may be prescribed,be admissible as evidence of that consent and of the signature of the document by the person by whom it is executed:

Provided that a document signifying the consent of the mother of an infant shall not be admissible under this Article unless the infant is at least 6 weeks old on the date of the execution of the document.
- (2) For the purposes of this Article, a document purporting to be attested in the manner provided by paragraph (1) shall be deemed to be so attested, and to be executed and attested on the date and at the place specified in the document, unless the contrary is proved.

15 Infant to live with adopters and notification to Minister³⁸

- (1) An adoption order shall not be made unless the infant, at all times during the preceding 3 months (not counting any time before he or she attained the age of 6 weeks), had his or her home with the applicant (or, in the case of an application by 2 spouses, one of the applicants).³⁹
- (2) Except where the applicant or one of the applicants is a parent of the infant, an adoption order shall not be made unless the applicant has, at least 3 months before the date of the order, given notice in writing to the Minister of his or her intention to apply for an adoption order in respect of the infant.⁴⁰
- (3) Where an application for an adoption order in respect of an infant is pending, a parent or guardian of the infant who has signified his or her consent to the making of an adoption order in pursuance of the application shall not be entitled, except with the leave of the Court, to remove the infant from his or her home with the applicant, and in considering whether to grant or refuse such leave the Court shall have regard to the welfare of the infant.⁴¹
- (4) In relation to –
 - (a) an adoption proposed to be effected by a Convention adoption order; or
 - (b) an adoption of an infant habitually resident outside the British Islands which is proposed to be effected otherwise than by a Convention adoption order, paragraph (1) shall have effect as if the reference to the preceding 3 months were a reference to the preceding 6 months.⁴²

16 Functions of Court as to adoption orders

- (1) The Court before making an adoption order shall be satisfied –
 - (a) that every person whose consent is necessary under this Law, and whose consent is not dispensed with, has consented to and understands the nature and effect of the adoption order for which application is made, and in particular in the case of any parent understands that the effect of the adoption order will be permanently to extinguish his or her parental responsibility for the infant;
 - (b) that the order if made will be for the welfare of the infant; and
 - (c) that the applicant has not received or agreed to receive, and that no person has made or given or agreed to make or give to the applicant, any payment or other reward in consideration of the adoption except such as the Court may sanction.⁴³
- (2) In determining whether an adoption order if made will be for the welfare of the infant, the Court shall have regard (among other things) to the health of the applicant, as evidenced, in such cases as may be prescribed, by the certificate of a registered medical practitioner, and shall give due consideration to the wishes of the infant, having regard to the infant's age and understanding.
- (3) The Court in an adoption order may impose such terms and conditions as the Court may think fit, and in particular may require the adopter by bond or otherwise to make for the infant such provision (if any) as in the opinion of the Court is just and expedient.

17 Interim orders

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Article, the Court may, upon any application for an adoption order, postpone the determination of the application and make an interim order giving parental responsibility for the infant to the applicant for a period not exceeding 2 years by way of a probationary period upon such terms as regards provision for the maintenance and education and supervision of the welfare of the infant and otherwise as the Court may think fit.⁴⁴
- (2) All such consents as are required to an adoption order shall be necessary to an interim order but subject to a like power on the part of the Court to dispense with any such consent.
- (3) An interim order shall not be made in any case where the making of an adoption order would be unlawful by virtue of Article 15.
- (4) Where an interim order has been made giving parental responsibility for an infant to the applicant for a period of less than 2 years, the Court may by order extend that period, but the total period for which the custody of the infant is given to the applicant under the order as varied under this paragraph shall not exceed 2 years.⁴⁵

- (5) An interim order shall not be deemed to be an adoption order within the meaning of this Law.

18 Procedure

- (1) In this Law “Adoption Rules” means rules made under paragraph (2).
- (2) Rules in regard to any matter to be prescribed under this Law and dealing generally with all matters of procedure and incidental matters arising out of this Law and for carrying this Law into effect shall be made by the Superior Number of the Royal Court.
- (3) Adoption Rules may provide for applications for adoption orders to be heard and determined otherwise than in open court.
- (4) Article 3 of the Official Publications (Jersey) Law 1960⁴⁶, shall apply to Adoption Rules as it applies to enactments mentioned in that Article and, accordingly, as soon as may be after any such rules are made, the Judicial Greffier shall transmit a certified copy thereof to the Greffier of the States.

- (a) as to the form of a direction under Article 20(5) or an application for such a direction;
 - (b) as to the information required to be given by an applicant for such a direction;
 - (c) as to the persons who are to be parties to proceedings on an application under that paragraph; and
 - (d) requiring notice of an application under that paragraph to be served on the Attorney General and on persons who may be affected by the direction.⁴⁷

PART 3

EFFECTS OF ADOPTION ORDERS

20 Consequences of adoption⁴⁹

- (1) An adopted infant shall be treated in law –

- (a) where his or her adopters are a married couple, as if he or she had been born as a child of the marriage (whether or not he or she was born after that marriage); and
 - (b) in any other case as if he or she had been born to the adopter in wedlock (but not as a child of any actual marriage of the adopter).⁵⁰
- (1A) An adopted infant shall be treated in law as if he or she were not a child of any person other than any adopter.⁵¹
- (1B) In the case of an infant adopted solely by a natural parent, paragraph (1A) has no effect as respects entitlement to property depending on relationship to that parent, or as respects anything else depending on that relationship.⁵²

either immediately or after an interval, the Court may, subject to the provisions of this Article, make an order (in this Article referred to as a “provisional adoption order”) authorizing the applicant to remove the infant for the purpose aforesaid, and giving to the applicant parental responsibility for the infant pending his or her adoption as aforesaid.⁹⁸

- (2) A provisional adoption order may be made in any case where, apart from the domicile of the applicant, an adoption order could be made in respect of the infant under this Law, but shall not be made in any other case.
- (3) Subject to the provisions of this Article, the provisions of this Law, other than this Article and Article 23, shall apply in relation to a provisional adoption order as they apply in relation to an adoption order, and references in those provisions to adoption, to an adoption order, to an application or applicant for such an order and to an adopter or a person adopted or authorized to be adopted under such an order shall be construed accordingly.
- (4) In relation to a provisional adoption order, Article 15(1) and (2) shall have effect as if for the word “3”, where it occurs in those paragraphs, there were substituted the word “6”.
- (5) Any entry in the Registers of Births or the Adopted Children Register which is required to be marked in consequence of the making of a provisional adoption order shall, in lieu of being marked with the word “Adopted” or “Re-adopted” be marked with the words “Provisionally adopted” or “Provisionally re-adopted” as the case may require.

42 Orders⁹⁹

- (1) The Minister may make Orders for any purpose for which Orders may be made under this Law and generally for the purposes of carrying this Law into effect.
- (1A) Orders under this Law may –
 - (a) make different provision for different purposes or areas; and
 - (b) make such incidental, supplementary, consequential or transitional provision as appears to the Minister to be expedient.¹⁰⁰
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), Orders may specify –
 - (a) the procedures to be followed by the panel;
 - (b) the circumstances the panel shall take into account in recommending to the Minister the payment of an allowance; and
 - (c) the procedure for review, variation and termination of allowances.

- (1) Any provision, however expressed, in any enactment passed before 25th June 1965 under which a person adopted in pursuance of an adoption order is for any purpose treated as the child of the adopter, or any other relationship is deduced by reference to such an order, shall have effect, as respects anything done or any event occurring on or after 25th June 1965, if it extends only to adoptions in pursuance of orders made in Jersey, as extending also to adoptions in pursuance of orders made, whether before or on or after 25th June 1965, in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or the Bailiwick of Guernsey, and Article 23(7) shall extend to any such order as is mentioned in this paragraph.
- (2) An order authorizing adoption made outside Jersey on or after 25th June 1965 shall also have the same effect as an adoption order for the purposes of Article 21(2) and Articles 22 and 29, if the order is made in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or the Bailiwick of Guernsey.
- (3) Where a person adopted in pursuance of an order made, whether before or on or after 25th June 1965, in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or the Bailiwick of Guernsey has subsequently become a legitimated person, and the order is then revoked, the revocation shall not affect the operation of Article 23 as extended by paragraph (1) in relation to an intestacy which occurred, or a disposition which was made, before the revocation.
- (4) Any such provision as is mentioned in paragraph (1) which, by virtue of Article 41(3) applies in relation to orders under that Article shall, as respects anything done on or after 25th June 1965, apply also in relation to similar orders made, whether before or after the commencement of this Law, in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or the Bailiwick of Guernsey, and shall be construed accordingly, and any such order made on or after 25th June 1965 shall also have the same effect as an adoption order for the purposes of the provisions mentioned in paragraph (2).

45 Evidence of adoptions, etc.¹⁰³

Any document which, under a provision of any enactment of the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or the Bailiwick of Guernsey corresponding to Article 24(2) is receivable as evidence of any matter in any part of the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or the Bailiwick of Guernsey, as the case may be, shall be so receivable in Jersey.

46 Registration of adoptions outside Jersey¹⁰⁴

- (1) Where the Superintendent Registrar is notified by the authority maintaining a register of adoptions in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or the Bailiwick of Guernsey that an order has been made in that country authorizing the adoption of an infant to whom an entry in the Registers of Births or the Adopted Children Register relates, the Superintendent Registrar shall cause the entry to be marked with the words “Adopted” or “Re-adopted”, as the case may require, followed by the name, in brackets, of the country in which the order was made.

- (2) Where, after an entry has been so marked, the Superintendent Registrar is notified as aforesaid that the order has been quashed, that an appeal against the order has been allowed or that the order has been revoked, the Superintendent Registrar shall cause the marking to be cancelled, and a copy or extract of an entry in any register, being an entry the marking of which is cancelled under this paragraph, shall be deemed to be an accurate copy or extract if and only if both the marking and the cancellation are omitted therefrom.
- (3) The preceding provisions of this Article shall apply in relation to orders corresponding to orders under Article 41 as they apply in relation to orders authorizing the adoption of an infant:

Provided that any marking of an entry required by virtue of this paragraph shall consist of the word “Provisionally” followed by the words mentioned in paragraph (1).

- (4) Without prejudice to paragraphs (2) and (3), where, after an entry in the Registers of Births has been marked in accordance with this Article, the birth is re-registered under Article 56 or 57 of the Marriage and Civil Status (Jersey) Law 2001¹⁰⁵, the entry on the re-registration shall be marked in the like manner.¹⁰⁶

(Article 11A(2))

CONVENTION ON PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND CO-OPERATION IN RESPECT OF INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTION

The States signatory to the present Convention,

Recognizing that the child, for the full and harmonious development of his or her personality, should grow up in a family environment, in an atmosphere of happiness, love and understanding,

Recalling that each State should take, as a matter of priority, appropriate measures to enable the child to remain in the care of his or her family of origin,

Recognizing that intercountry adoption may offer the advantage of a permanent family to a child for whom a suitable family cannot be found in his or her State of origin,

Convinced of the necessity to take measures to ensure that intercountry adoptions are made in the best interests of the child and with respect for his or her fundamental rights, and to prevent the abduction, the sale of, or traffic in children,

Desiring to establish common provisions to this effect, taking into account the principles set forth in international instruments, in particular the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, of 20 November 1989, and the United Nations Declaration on Social and Legal Principles relating to the Protection and Welfare of Children, with Special Reference to Foster Placement and Adoption Nationally and Internationally (General Assembly Resolution 41/85, of 3 December 1986),

Have agreed upon the following provisions –

CHAPTER ISCOPE OF THE CONVENTIONArticle 1*

The objects of the present Convention are –

- (a) to establish safeguards to ensure that intercountry adoptions take place in the best interests of the child and with respect for his or her fundamental rights as recognised in international law;
- (b) to establish a system of co-operation amongst Contracting States to ensure that those safeguards are respected and thereby prevent the abduction, the sale of, or traffic in children;
- (c) to secure the recognition in Contracting States of adoptions made in accordance with the Convention.

Article 2

1. The Convention shall apply where a child habitually resident in one Contracting State ('the State of origin') has been, is being, or is to be moved to another Contracting State ('the receiving State') either after his or her adoption in the State of origin by spouses or a person habitually resident in the receiving State, or for the purposes of such an adoption in the receiving State or in the State of origin.
2. The Convention covers only adoptions which create a permanent parent-child relationship.

Article 3

The Convention ceases to apply if the agreements mentioned in Article 17, subparagraph (c), have not been given before the child attains the age of eighteen years.

CHAPTER II

Article 4

An adoption within the scope of the Convention shall take place only if the competent authorities of the State of origin –

- (b) have determined, after possibilities for placement of the child within the State of origin have been given due consideration, that an intercountry adoption is in the child's best interest;
- (c) have ensured that –
 - (i) the persons, institutions and authorities whose consent is necessary for adoption, have been counselled as may be necessary and duly informed of the effects of their consent, in particular whether or not an adoption will result in the termination of the legal relationship between the child and his or her family of origin,
 - (ii) such persons, institutions and authorities have given their consent freely, in the required legal form, and expressed or evidenced in writing,
 - (iii) the consents have not been induced by payment or compensation of any kind and have not been withdrawn, and
 - (iv) the consent of the mother, where required, has been given only after the birth of the child; and
- (d) have ensured, having regard to the age and degree of maturity of the child, that –

- (ii) consideration has been given to the child's wishes and opinions.
- (iii) the child's consent to the adoption, where such consent is required, has been given freely, in the required legal form, and expressed or evidenced in writing, and
- (iv) such consent has not been induced by payment or compensation of any kind.

Article 5

An adoption within the scope of the Convention shall take place only if the competent authorities of the receiving State –

- (a) have determined that the prospective adoptive parents are eligible and suited to adopt;
- (b) have ensured that the prospective adoptive parents have been counselled as may be necessary; and
- (c) have determined that the child is or will be authorised to enter and reside permanently in that State.

2. Federal States, States with more than one system of law or States having autonomous territorial units shall be free to appoint more than one Central Authority and to specify the territorial or personal extent of their functions. Where a State has appointed more than one Central Authority, it shall designate the Central Authority to which any communication may be addressed for transmission to the appropriate Central Authority within that State.

Article 7

1. Central Authorities shall co-operate with each other and promote co-operation amongst the competent authorities in their States to protect children and to achieve the other objects of the Convention.
2. They shall take directly all appropriate measures to –

Article 9

Article 10

Accreditation shall only be granted to and maintained by bodies demonstrating their competence to carry out properly the tasks with which they may be entrusted.

Article 11

An accredited body shall –

- (b) be directed and staffed by persons qualified by their ethical standards and by training or experience to work in the field of intercountry adoption; and
- (c) be subject to supervision by competent authorities of that State as to its composition, operation and financial situation.

Article 12

A body accredited in one Contracting State may act in another Contracting State only if the competent authorities of both States have authorised it to do so.

Article 13

The designation of the Central Authorities and, where appropriate, the extent of their functions, as well as the names and addresses of the accredited bodies shall be communicated by each Contracting State to the Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law.

CHAPTER IV

PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS IN INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTION

Article 14

Persons habitually resident in a Contracting State, who wish to adopt a child habitually resident in another Contracting State, shall apply to the Central Authority in the State of their habitual residence.

Article 15

1. If the Central Authority of the receiving State is satisfied that the applicants are eligible and suited to adopt, it shall prepare a report including information about their identity, eligibility and suitability to adopt, background, family and medical history, social environment, reasons for adoption, ability to undertake an intercountry adoption, as well as the characteristics of the children for whom they would be qualified to care.
2. It shall transmit the report to the Central Authority of the State of origin.

Article 16

1. If the Central Authority of the State of origin is satisfied that the child is adoptable, it shall –
 - (a) prepare a report including information about his or her identity, adoptability, background, social environment, family history, medical history including that of the child's family, and any special needs of the child;
 - (b) give due consideration to the child's upbringing and to his or her ethnic, religious and cultural background;
 - (c) ensure that consents have been obtained in accordance with Article 4; and
 - (d) determine, on the basis in particular of the reports relating to the child and the prospective adoptive parents, whether the envisaged placement is in the best interests of the child.
2. It shall transmit to the Central Authority of the receiving State its report on the child, proof that the necessary consents have been obtained and the reasons for its determination on the placement, taking care not to reveal the identity of the mother and the father if, in the State of origin, these identities may not be disclosed.

Article 17

Any decision in the State of origin that a child should be entrusted to prospective adoptive parents may only be made if –

- (a) the Central Authority of that State has ensured that the prospective adoptive parents agree;
- (b) the Central Authority of the receiving State has approved such decision, where such approval is required by the law of that State or by the Central Authority of the State of origin;
- (c) the Central Authorities of both States have agreed that the adoption may proceed; and
- (d) it has been determined, in accordance with Article 5, that the prospective adoptive parents are eligible and suited to adopt and that the child is or will be authorised to enter and reside permanently in the receiving State.

Article 18

The Central Authorities of both States shall take all necessary steps to obtain permission for the child to leave the State of origin and to enter and reside permanently in the receiving State.

Article 19

- 1. The transfer of the child to the receiving State may only be carried out if the requirements of Article 17 have been satisfied.
- 2. The Central Authorities of both States shall ensure that this transfer takes place in secure and appropriate circumstances and, if possible, in the company of the adoptive or prospective adoptive parents.
- 3. If the transfer of the child does not take place, the reports referred to in Articles 15 and 16 are to be sent back to the authorities who forwarded them.

Article 20

The Central Authorities shall keep each other informed about the adoption process and the measures taken to complete it, as well as about the progress of the placement if a probationary period is required.

Article 21

- 1. Where the adoption is to take place after the transfer of the child to the receiving State and it appears to the Central Authority of that State that the continued placement of the child with the prospective adoptive parents is not in the child's best interests, such Central Authority shall take the measures necessary to protect the child, in particular –
 - (a) to cause the child to be withdrawn from the prospective adoptive parents and to arrange temporary care;

- (b) in consultation with the Central Authority of the State of origin, to arrange without delay a new placement of the child with a view to adoption or, if this is not appropriate, to arrange alternative long-term care; an adoption shall not take place until the Central Authority of the State of origin has been duly informed concerning the new prospective adoptive parents;
 - (c) as a last resort, to arrange the return of the child, if his or her interests so require.
- 2. Having regard in particular to the age and degree of maturity of the child, he or she shall be consulted and, where appropriate, his or her consent obtained in relation to measures to be taken under this Article.

Article 22

- 1. The functions of a Central Authority under this Chapter may be performed by public authorities or by bodies accredited under Chapter III, to the extent permitted by the law of its State.
- 2. Any Contracting State may declare to the depositary of the Convention that the functions of the Central Authority under Articles 15 to 21 may be performed in that State, to the extent permitted by the law and subject to the supervision of the competent authorities of that State, also by bodies or persons who –
 - (a) meet the requirements of integrity, professional competence, experience and accountability of that State; and
 - (b) are qualified by their ethical standards and by training or experience to work in the field of intercountry adoption.
- 3. A Contracting State which makes the declaration provided for in paragraph 2 shall keep the Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law informed of the names and addresses of these bodies and persons.
- 4. Any Contracting State may declare to the depositary of the Convention that adoptions of children habitually resident in its territory may only take place if the functions of the Central Authorities are performed in accordance with paragraph 1.
- 5. Notwithstanding any declaration made under paragraph 2, the reports provided for in Articles 15 and 16 shall, in every case, be prepared under the responsibility of the Central Authority or other authorities or bodies in accordance with paragraph 1.

CHAPTER V

RECOGNITION AND EFFECTS OF THE ADOPTION

Article 23

- 1. An adoption certified by the competent authority of the State of the adoption as having been made in accordance with the Convention shall be recognised by operation of law in the other Contracting States. The certificate shall specify when and by whom the agreements under Article 17, sub-paragraph c, were given.

2. Each Contracting State shall, at the time of signature, ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, notify the depositary of the Convention of the identity and the functions of the authority or the authorities which, in that State, are competent to make the certification. It shall also notify the depositary of any modification in the designation of these authorities.

Article 24

The recognition of an adoption may be refused in a contracting State only if the adoption is manifestly contrary to its public policy, taking into account the best interests of the child.

Article 25

Any Contracting State may declare to the depositary of the convention that it will not be bound under this Convention to recognise adoptions made in accordance with an agreement concluded by application of Article 39, paragraph 2.

Article 26

1. The recognition of an adoption includes recognition of
 - (a) the legal parent-child relationship between the child and his or her adoptive parents;
 - (b) parental responsibility of the adoptive parents for the child;
 - (c) the termination of a pre-existing legal relationship between the child and his or her mother and father, if the adoption has this effect in the Contracting State where it was made.
2. In the case of an adoption having the effect of terminating a pre-existing legal parent-child relationship, the child shall enjoy in the receiving State, and in any other Contracting State where the adoption is recognised, rights equivalent to those resulting from adoptions having this effect in each such State.
3. The preceding paragraphs shall not prejudice the application of any provision more favourable for the child, in force in the Contracting State which recognises the adoption.

Article 27

1. Where an adoption granted in the State of origin does not have the effect of terminating a pre-existing legal parent-child relationship, it may, in the receiving State which recognises the adoption under the Convention, be converted into an adoption having such an effect –
 - (a) if the law of the receiving State so permits; and
 - (b) if the consents referred to in Article 4, sub-paragraphs c and d, have been or are given for the purpose of such an adoption.

2. Article 23 applies to the decision converting the adoption.

CHAPTER VI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 28

The Convention does not affect any law of a State of origin which requires that the adoption of a child habitually resident within that State take place in that State or which prohibits the child's placement in, or transfer to, the receiving State prior to adoption.

Article 29

There shall be no contact between the prospective adoptive parents and the child's parents or any other person who has care of the child until the requirements of Article 4, sub-paragraphs a to c, and Article 5, sub-paragraph a, have been met, unless the adoption takes place within a family or unless the contact is in compliance with the conditions established by the competent authority of the State of origin.

Article 30

1. The competent authorities of a Contracting State shall ensure that information held by them concerning the child's origin, in particular information concerning the identity of his or her parents, as well as the medical history, is preserved.
2. They shall ensure that the child or his or her representative has access to such information, under appropriate guidance, in so far as is permitted by the law of that State.

Article 31

Without prejudice to Article 30, personal data gathered or transmitted under the Convention, especially data referred to in Articles 15 and 16, shall be used only for the purposes for which they were gathered or transmitted.

Article 32

2. Only costs and expenses, including reasonable professional fees of persons involved in the adoption, may be charged or paid.
3. The directors, administrators and employees of bodies involved in an adoption shall not receive remuneration which is unreasonably high in relation to services rendered.

Article 33

A competent authority which finds that any provision of the Convention has not been respected or that there is a serious risk that it may not be respected, shall immediately inform the Central Authority of its State. This Central Authority shall be responsible for ensuring that appropriate measures are taken.

Article 34

If the competent authority of the State of destination of a document so requests, a translation certified as being in conformity with the original must be furnished. Unless otherwise provided, the costs of such translation are to be borne by the prospective adoptive parents.

Article 35

The competent authorities of the contracting States shall act expeditiously in the process of adoption.

Article 36

In relation to a State which has two or more systems of law with regard to adoption applicable in different territorial units –

Article 37

In relation to a State which with regard to adoption has two or more systems of law applicable to different categories of persons, any reference to the law of that State shall be construed as referring to the legal system specified by the law of that State.

Article 38

A State within which different territorial units have their own rules of law in respect of adoption shall not be bound to apply the Convention where a State with a unified system of law would not be bound to do so.

Article 39

1. The convention does not affect any international instrument to which Contracting States are Parties and which contains provisions on matters governed by the Convention, unless a contrary declaration is made by the States parties to such instrument.

2. Any Contracting State may enter into agreements with one or more other Contracting States, with a view to improving the application of the Convention in their mutual relations. These agreements may derogate only from the provisions of Articles 14 to 16 and 18 to 21. The States which have concluded such an agreement shall transmit a copy to the depositary of the Convention.

Article 40

No reservation to the Convention shall be permitted.

Article 41

The Convention shall apply in every case where an application pursuant to Article 14 has been received after the Convention has entered into force in the receiving State and the State of origin.

Article 42

PROVISIONS AS TO EXISTING DE FACTO ADOPTIONS

Where, on the first day of January, 1948, any infant was in the custody of, and being brought up, maintained and educated by any person or two spouses jointly as his, her or their own child under any de facto adoption, and had for a period of not less than two years before that date been in such custody, and been so brought up, maintained and educated, the Court may, upon the application of such person or spouses, and notwithstanding that the applicant is a male and the infant a female, make an adoption order authorizing him, her or them to adopt the infant without requiring the consent of any parent or guardian of the infant to be obtained, upon being satisfied that in all the circumstances of the case it is just and equitable and for the welfare of the infant that no such consent should be required and that an adoption order should be made.”
