2 Establishment of Adoption Service¹¹

- (1) The Minister shall continue to maintain in Jersey a service designed to meet the needs, in relation to adoption, of –
- (a) children who have been or may be adopted;
 - (b) parents and guardians of such children; and
 - (c) persons who have adopted or may adopt a child,

3 Welfare of child to be paramount¹⁴

- (1) In reaching any decision relating to the adoption of a child, the paramount consideration of the Court, the Minister and the Adoption Service must be the welfare of the child throughout his or her life.
- (2) Without derogation from paragraph (1) or from the specific provisions as to agreement by a child in Article 3A, the Court, the Minister and the Adoption Service shall, in reaching any decision relating to the adoption of a child, have regard to all the circumstances of the case and shall in particular –
 - (a) so far as practicable, ascertain the wishes and feelings of the child regarding a decision or proposed decision relating to his or her adoption; and
 - (b) give due consideration to the child’s wishes and feelings, having regard to his or her age and understanding.
- (3) The Minister may by Order prescribe other matters, in addition to those mentioned in paragraph (2) and in all cases without derogation from paragraph (1), to which the Court, the Minister and the Adoption Service must have regard in reaching any decision relating to the adoption of a child.

3A Agreement of child having sufficient understanding¹⁵

- (1) This Article applies in relation to children aged 14 or over.
- (2) A child in relation to whom this Article applies shall, subject to paragraph (5), be deemed to have sufficient understanding to give his or her agreement in accordance with paragraphs (3) and (4).
- (3) Where the Court proposes to make an order authorizing the adoption of such a child, the order shall not be made unless the Court is satisfied that the child freely, and with full understanding of what is involved, agrees to the adoption.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (3), the child’s agreement must be given in writing or be evidenced by writing.
- (5) If in all the circumstances the Court considers that a child in relation to whom this Article would otherwise apply is incapable of giving agreement, the Court may proceed to make the proposed order without seeking to obtain such agreement.
- (6) If the Court proceeds to make an order without agreement in pursuance of paragraph (5), the Court shall record that it has done so and its reasons for so doing.

- (7) The Minister may by Order amend paragraph (1) for the purpose of specifying a different age.

4 Religious upbringing of adopted child¹⁶

The Minister shall in placing a child for adoption have regard, so far as is practicable, to any wishes of a child's parents and guardians as to the religious upbringing of the child.

5 Duty to use approved adoption societies¹⁷

The Minister shall, if he or she cannot place a child for adoption in Jersey or in Guernsey, use an adoption society approved under the Adoption Act 1976 (c.36) of the United Kingdom.

6 Restriction on arranging adoptions and placing of children¹⁸

- (1) A person other than the Minister shall not make arrangements for the adoption of a child, or place a child for adoption, unless –
- (a) the proposed adopter is a relative of the child; or
 - (b) the proposed adopter is acting in pursuance of an order of the Court.
- (2) A person who –
- (a) takes part in the management or control of a body of persons which exists wholly or partly for the purpose of making arrangements for the adoption of children;

 - (c) receives a child placed with the person in contravention of paragraph (1),
- shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale or to both.
- (3) In any proceedings for an offence under paragraph (2)(a), proof of things done or of words written, spoken or published (whether or not in the presence of any party to the proceedings) by any person taking part in the management or control of a body of persons, or in making arrangements for the adoption of children on behalf of the body, shall be admissible as evidence of the purpose for which that body exists.

7 Adoption Panel¹⁹

- (1) There is established an Adoption Panel (in this Law referred to as the "panel") –
- (a) to carry out such of the powers and duties of the Minister as may be determined pursuant to Article 8; and

- (b) to recommend to the Minister where an allowance payable under Article 9 is appropriate.
- (2) Subject to paragraph (3), the panel shall comprise the Minister or such officers in the employment of an administration of the States for which the Minister is assigned responsibility, and such members of the public, as the Minister shall from time to time think fit.
- (3) Nothing in paragraph (2) shall be construed as a requirement that the Minister shall at all times be a member of the panel.

8 Delegation to the Panel²⁰

The Minister may delegate to the panel such of his or her powers and duties in relation to the maintenance of the Adoption Service as the Minister may by Order determine.

9 Allowances²¹

The Minister may, after considering a recommendation of the panel, pay an allowance to persons who have adopted, or intend to adopt, children, where the Minister is satisfied that such an adoption is not practicable without payment of an allowance.

PART 2

MAKING OF ADOPTION ORDERS

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Law, the Court may, upon an application made in the prescribed manner –
 - (a) by a person domiciled in the British Islands; or
 - (b) subject to paragraph (1A), by 2 persons jointly, at least one of whom is domiciled in the British Islands,make an order authorizing the applicant or, in the case of an application by 2 persons jointly, the applicants, to adopt the child.²²
- (1A) A joint application may be made only where the 2 persons in question are –
 - (a) married to each other;
 - (b) in a civil partnership with each other; or
 - (c) otherwise living as partners in an enduring family relationship (and for this purpose it is irrelevant whether the 2 persons are of different genders or the same gender).²³
- (1B) Sub-paragraph (1A)(c) does not include 2 persons one of whom is related to the other as a parent, grandparent, sister, brother, aunt or uncle, and relationship for this purpose –

- (a) means relationship of full or half blood or, in the case of an adopted person, such a relationship as would exist except for the adoption; and
 - (b) includes the relationship of a child with his or her adoptive or former adoptive parents, but does not include any other adoptive relationship.²⁴
- (2) Where the application is for a Convention adoption order and complies with Article 3C of this Law the requirements of paragraph (1) of this Article in respect of domicile shall not apply.²⁵
- (3) An adoption order may be made authorizing the adoption of a child by the mother or father of the child, either alone or jointly with his or her spouse or civil partner.²⁶
- (4) An adoption order may be made in respect of a child who has already been the subject of an adoption order made by a court of competent jurisdiction whether in Jersey or elsewhere; and in relation to an application for an adoption order in respect of such a child, the adopter or adopters under the previous or last previous adoption order shall be deemed to be the parent or parents of the child for all the purposes of this Law.²⁷
- (5) ²⁸

10A Consent of spouse or civil partner of adoptive parent²⁹

- (1) Where, on the application of a person made in accordance with Article 10(1)(a), the Court proposes to make an order authorizing the adoption of a child, the order shall not be made unless the Court is satisfied that –
 - (a) the spouse or civil partner of the person making the application freely, and with full understanding of what is involved, agrees to the making of the order;
 - (b) the spouse's or civil partner's agreement to the making of the order should be dispensed with on a ground specified in paragraph (2).
- (2) The grounds mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) are that –
 - (a) the spouse or civil partner cannot be found;
 - (b) the spouse or civil partner is incapable of giving agreement;
 - (c) the spouse or civil partner is unreasonably withholding agreement; or
 - (d) the welfare of the child, as the paramount consideration, justifies the making of the order without the agreement of the spouse or civil partner.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), the spouse's or civil partner's agreement must be given in writing or be evidenced by writing.

11 Age and sex of applicant

- (1) Subject to paragraph (2), an adoption order shall not be made in respect of a child unless the applicant –
 - (a) is the mother or father of the child; or
 - (b) is a relative of the child, and has attained the age of 20 years; or
 - (c) has attained the age of 25 years.
- (2) An adoption order may be made in respect of a child on the joint application of 2 spouses or both partners of a civil partnership –
 - (a) if either of the applicants is the mother or father of the child; or
 - (b) if the condition set out in paragraph (1)(b) or (c) is satisfied in the case of one of the applicants, and the other of them has attained the age of 20 years.³⁰
- (3) ³¹

11A Implementation of Convention³²

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Law, the Minister may by Order make provision for giving effect to the Convention, and such provision may include amendments to this Law.
- (2) The text of the Convention (so far as material) is set out in Schedule 2.
- (3) An Order under this Article may provide that any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of the Order shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment for a term of 3 months and to a fine.³³
- (4) Any power to make subordinate legislation under or for the purposes of this Law includes power to do so with a view to giving effect to the provisions of the Convention.

11B Central authority and accredited bodies³⁴

- (1) The Minister shall discharge the Central Authority's functions under the Convention but any of its functions under Articles 8, 9 or 15 to 21 of the Convention may be discharged by an accredited body on the Minister's behalf.
- (2) An approved adoption society is an accredited body for the purposes of the Convention if the approval extends to the provision of facilities in respect of Convention adoptions and adoptions effected by Convention adoption orders.

11C Convention adoption orders³⁵

An adoption order shall be made as a Convention adoption order if –

- (a) the application is for a Convention adoption order; and
- (b) such requirements as may be prescribed by Order made by the Minister are complied with.

12 Freeing child for adoption³⁶

- (1) Where, on an application by the Minister, the Court is satisfied in the case of each parent or guardian of the child that –
 - (a) the person freely, and with full understanding of what is involved, agrees generally and unconditionally to the making of an adoption order; or
 - (b) the person's agreement to the making of an adoption order should be dispensed with on a ground specified in Article 13(2),the Court shall make an order declaring the child free for adoption.
- (2) No application shall be made under paragraph (1) unless –
 - (a) it is made with the consent of a parent or guardian of a child; or
 - (b) the Minister is applying for dispensation under paragraph (1)(b) of the agreement of each parent or guardian of the child, and the child is in the care of the Minister.
- (3) No agreement required under paragraph (1)(a) shall be dispensed with under paragraph (1)(b) unless the child is already placed for adoption or the Court is satisfied that it is likely that the child will be placed for adoption.
- (4) An agreement by the mother of the child is ineffective for the purposes of this Article if given less than 6 weeks after the child's birth.
- (5) On the making of an order under this Article parental responsibility for the child is given to the Minister and Article 20(2) applies as if the order were an adoption order and the Minister was the adopter.³⁷
- (6) Before making an order under this Article, the Court shall satisfy itself, in relation to each parent or guardian of the child who can be found, that the person has been given an opportunity of making, if the person so wishes, a declaration that he or she prefers not to be involved in future questions concerning the adoption of the child, and any such declaration shall be recorded by the Court.
- (7) Before making an order under this Article, in the case of a child whose father does not have parental responsibility for the child, the Court shall satisfy itself in relation to any person claiming to be the father that –
 - (a) the person has no intention, within the next 6 months, of –
 - (i) requesting registration as the child's father under Article 56 of the Marriage and Civil Status (Jersey) Law 2001³⁸, or
 - (ii) applying for an order under Article 5 of the Children (Jersey) Law 2002³⁹ or a residence order under Article 10 of that Law; or
 - (b) if the person did make an application referred to in subparagraph (a)(ii), it would be likely to be refused.⁴⁰
- (8) An order under this Article may be made in respect of a child who has already been the subject of an adoption order made by a court of competent jurisdiction whether in Jersey or elsewhere.⁴¹

12A Progress reports to former parents⁴²

- (1) Within 14 days following the date 12 months after the making of an order under Article 12, the Minister, unless he or she has previously by notice to the former parent informed him or her that the child has been adopted, shall inform that parent by notice –
 - (a) whether the child has been adopted; and
 - (b) if the child has not been adopted whether he or she has his or her home with a person with whom he or she has been placed for adoption.
- (2) Where a notice has been given as described in paragraph (1)(b) the Minister shall inform the former parent by notice –
 - (a) if and when the child is adopted; and
 - (b) if the child ceases to have his or her home with a person with whom he or she has been placed for adoption.
- (3) If at any time the former parent by notice makes a declaration to the Minister that he or she prefers not to be involved in future questions concerning the adoption of the child –
 - (a) the Minister shall secure that the declaration is recorded by the Court; and
 - (b) the Minister shall be released from any further requirements under paragraph (2).
- (4) In this Article and Article 12B of this Law “former parent” means any person required to be given an opportunity of making a declaration under Article 12(6) but who did not do so.

12B Revocation of Article 12 order⁴³

- (1) Where at any time more than 12 months after the making of an order under Article 12 of this Law (an “Article 12 order”), if the child –
 - (a) has not been adopted; and
 - (b) does not have his or her home with a person with whom he or she has been placed for adoption,his or her former parent may apply to the Court for an order revoking the Article 12 order on the ground that he or she wishes to resume parental responsibility.
- (2) While an application under this Article is pending the Minister shall not place the child for adoption without the leave of the Court.
- (3) The revocation of an Article 12 order operates –
 - (a) to extinguish the parental responsibility given to the Minister;
 - (b) to give parental responsibility to the child’s mother and, where the child’s father and mother were married at the time of the child’s birth, the child’s father; and
 - (c) to revive –

- (ai) parental responsibility acquired by a father in accordance with the requirements of Article 5(1)(aa) of the Children (Jersey) Law 2002⁴⁴,
 - (i) any parental responsibility agreement,
 - (ii) any order pursuant to Article 5 of the Children (Jersey) Law 2002 that the father shall have parental responsibility for the child, and
 - (iii) any appointment of a guardian in respect of the child (whether made by a court or otherwise),extinguished by the making of the Article 12 order.⁴⁵
- (4) Subject to paragraph (3)(c), the revocation does not –
 - (a) operate to revive –
 - (i) any order under the Children (Jersey) Law 2002; or
 - (ii) any duty referred to in Article 20(2)(a)(iii) of this Law,extinguished by the making of the Article 12 order; or
 - (b) affect any person's parental responsibility so far as it relates to the period between the making of the Article 12 order and the date of revocation of that order.
- (5) Subject to paragraph (6), where the Court dismisses an application under this Article on the grounds that to allow it would contravene the principle embodied in Article 3 of this Law –
 - (a) the applicant shall not be entitled to make a further application in respect of the child; and
 - (b) the Minister shall be released from the duty of complying further with Article 12A(2) as respects that parent.
- (6) Paragraph (5)(a) shall not apply where the Court gives leave to the former parent to make a further application to revoke the Article 12 order, but such leave shall not be given unless it appears to the Court that because of a change in circumstances or for any other reason it is proper to allow the application to be made.

13 Parental agreement⁴⁶

- (1) An adoption order shall not be made unless –
 - (a) the child is free for adoption by virtue of an order made under Article 12 or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction in any other part of the British Islands; or
 - (b) in the case of each parent or guardian of the child the Court is satisfied that –
 - (i) the parent or guardian freely, and with full understanding of what is involved, agrees unconditionally to the making of an adoption order, whether or not he or she knows the identity of the applicants, or

- (ii) the parent or guardian's agreement to the making of the adoption order should be dispensed with on a ground specified in paragraph (2).⁴⁷
- (2) The grounds mentioned in paragraph (1)(b)(ii) are that the parent or guardian –
 - (a) cannot be found or is incapable of giving agreement;
 - (b) is withholding his or her agreement unreasonably;
 - (c) has persistently failed without reasonable cause to exercise his or her rights, duties, obligations and liabilities as a parent or guardian in respect of the child;
 - (d) has abandoned or neglected the child;
 - (e) subject to paragraph (4) has persistently ill-treated the child;
 - (f) has seriously ill-treated the child;
 - (g) is incapable of caring for the child or is of such habits or mode of life as to be unfit to have the care of the child.⁴⁸
- (3) Agreement is ineffective for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b)(i) if given by the mother less than 6 weeks after the child's birth.⁴⁹
- (4) Paragraph (2)(e) does not apply unless because of the ill-treatment or for other reasons, the rehabilitation of the child within the household of the parent, or guardian is unlikely.
- (5) Where there has been a finding by a court of competent jurisdiction as to any grounds specified in paragraph (2)(c), (d), (e), (f) or (g) in the course of earlier proceedings to which the parent or guardian was given the opportunity of being a party, that finding shall be sufficient but not conclusive evidence of those grounds.
- (6) Before making an adoption order in the case of a child whose father does not have parental responsibility for the child, the Court shall satisfy itself in relation to any person claiming to be the father that –
 - (a) he has no intention of applying within the next 6 months for an order under Article 5 of the Children (Jersey) Law 2002 or a residence order under Article 10 of that Law; or
 - (b) if he did make any such application, it would be likely to be refused.⁵⁰

14 Evidence of consent of parent or guardian

- (1) Where a parent or guardian of a child does not attend in the proceedings on an application for an adoption order for the purpose of giving his or her consent to the making of the order, a document signifying his or her consent to the making of such an order shall –
 - (a) if the person in whose favour the order is to be made is named in the document or (where the identity of that person is not known to the consenting party) is distinguished therein in the prescribed manner; and
 - (b) if the document is attested by a person of any such class as may be prescribed, be admissible as evidence of that consent and of the signature of the document by the person by whom it is executed:

Provided that a document signifying the consent of the mother of a child shall not be admissible under this Article unless the child is at least 6 weeks old on the date of the execution of the document.

- (2) For the purposes of this Article, a document purporting to be attested in the manner provided by paragraph (1) shall be deemed to be so attested, and to be executed and attested on the date and at the place specified in the document, unless the contrary is proved.

15 Child to live with adopters and notification to Minister⁵¹

- (1) An adoption order shall not be made unless the child, at all times during the preceding 3 months (not counting any time before he or she attained the age of 6 weeks), had his or her home with the applicant (or, in the case of an application by 2 spouses or both partners of a civil partnership, one of the applicants).⁵²
- (2) Except where the applicant or one of the applicants is a parent of the child, an adoption order shall not be made unless the applicant has, at least 3 months before the date of the order, given notice in writing to the Minister of his or her intention to apply for an adoption order in respect of the child.⁵³
- (3) Where an application for an adoption order in respect of a child is pending, a parent or guardian of the child who has signified his or her consent to the making of an adoption order in pursuance of the application shall not be entitled, except with the leave of the Court, to remove the child from his or her home with the applicant, and in considering whether to grant or refuse such leave the Court shall have regard to the welfare of the child.⁵⁴
- (4) In relation to –
 - (a) an adoption proposed to be effected by a Convention adoption order; or
 - (b) an adoption of a child habitually resident outside the British Islands which is proposed to be effected otherwise than by a Convention adoption order, paragraph (1) shall have effect as if the reference to the preceding 3 months were a reference to the preceding 6 months.⁵⁵

16 Functions of Court as to adoption orders

 - (a) that every person whose consent is necessary under this Law, and whose consent is not dispensed with, has consented to and understands the nature and effect of the adoption order for which application is made, and in particular in the case of any parent understands that the effect of the adoption order will be

- permanently to extinguish his or her parental responsibility for the child;
- (b) that the order if made will be for the welfare of the child; and
 - (c) that the applicant has not received or agreed to receive, and that no person has made or given or agreed to make or give to the applicant, any payment or other reward in consideration of the adoption except such as the Court may sanction.⁵⁶

- (3) The Court in an adoption order may impose such terms and conditions as the Court may think fit, and in particular may require the adopter by bond or otherwise to make for the child such provision (if any) as in the opinion of the Court is just and expedient.

17 Interim orders

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Article, the Court may, upon any application for an adoption order, postpone the determination of the application and make an interim order giving parental responsibility for the child to the applicant for a period not exceeding 2 years by way of a probationary period upon such terms as regards provision for the maintenance and education and supervision of the welfare of the child and otherwise as the Court may think fit.⁵⁷
- (2) All such consents as are required to an adoption order shall be necessary to an interim order but subject to a like power on the part of the Court to dispense with any such consent.
- (3) An interim order shall not be made in any case where the making of an adoption order would be unlawful by virtue of Article 15.
- (4) Where an interim order has been made giving parental responsibility for a child to the applicant for a period of less than 2 years, the Court may by order extend that period, but the total period for which the custody of the child is given to the applicant under the order as varied under this paragraph shall not exceed 2 years.⁵⁸

EFFECTS OF ADOPTION ORDERS

20 Consequences of adoption⁶²

- (1) An adopted child shall be treated in law –
 - (a) where his or her adopters are a married couple or a civil partnership couple, as if he or she had been born as a child of the marriage or civil partnership, as the case may be (whether or not he or she was born after that marriage or civil partnership); and
 - (b) in any other case as if he or she had been born to the adopter –
 - (i) in wedlock (but not as a child of any actual marriage of the adopter), or
 - (ii) in the course of a civil partnership.⁶³
- (1A) An adopted child shall be treated in law as if he or she were not a child of any person other than any adopter.⁶⁴

- (1B) In the case of a child adopted solely by a natural parent, paragraph (1A) has no effect as respects entitlement to property depending on relationship to that parent, or as respects anything else depending on that relationship.⁶⁵
- (2) Where an adoption order is made –
- (a) the following are extinguished –
 - (i) the parental responsibility which any person has for the child immediately before the making of the order,
 - (ii) any order under the Children (Jersey) Law 2002 unless the court directs otherwise, and
 - (iii) any duty arising by virtue of an agreement or the order of a court to make payments, so far as the payments are in respect of the child's maintenance or upbringing for any period after the making of the order, unless made under an agreement which constitutes a trust or expressly provides that the duty is not to be extinguished by the making of an adoption order; and
 - (b) the adopter shall have parental responsibility for the adopted child.⁶⁶
- (3) Where it becomes necessary to appoint a guardian for an adopted child, the adopter or adopters and the relatives of the adopter or adopters shall, in all matters appertaining to the formation of the guardianship, be deemed to be the relatives of the adopted child, and, where an adoption order is made in respect of a child who is under guardianship, the Court shall order that the guardianship be reconstituted unless it is of the opinion that it is in the interests of the child that the guardianship be maintained.
- (4) For the purposes of the law relating to marriage or civil partnership, an adopter and the person whom the adopter has been authorized to adopt under an adoption order shall be deemed to be within the prohibited degrees of consanguinity; and the provisions of this paragraph shall continue to have effect notwithstanding that some person other than the adopter is authorized by a subsequent order to adopt the same child.⁶⁷
- (5) Where, in the case of a child adopted under a Convention adoption, the Court is satisfied, on an application under this paragraph –
- (a) that under the law of the country in which the adoption was effected the adoption is not a full adoption;
 - (b) that the consents referred to in Article 4(c) and (d) of the Convention have not been given for a full adoption, or that Jersey is not the receiving State (within the meaning of Article 2 of the Convention); and
 - (c) that it would be more favourable to the child for a direction to be given under this paragraph, the court may direct that the adoption shall have effect other than as a full adoption.⁶⁸

- (6) In paragraph (5) “full adoption” means an adoption by virtue of which the child falls to be treated in law as if he or she were not the child of any person other than the adopters or adopter.⁶⁹

21 Friendly societies, insurance, etc.

- (1) For the purposes of the enactments for the time being in force relating to friendly societies, collecting societies or industrial insurance companies, an adopter shall be deemed to be the parent of the child whom the adopter is authorized to adopt under an adoption order.
- (2) Where, before the making of an adoption order in respect of a child, the natural parent of the child has effected an insurance with any such society or company for the payment, on the death of the child, of money for funeral expenses, the rights and liabilities under the policy shall by virtue of the adoption order be transferred to the adopter and the adopter shall, for the purposes of the said enactments, be treated as the person who took out the policy.
- (3) In this Article “adoption order” means an adoption order made by a court of competent jurisdiction whether in Jersey or elsewhere.⁷⁰

22 Orders and agreements for maintenance of illegitimate children

- (1) Where an adoption order is made in respect of a child who is illegitimate, then, unless the adopter is the child’s mother and the mother is a single woman, any order or agreement whereby the father of the child is required or has undertaken to make payments specifically for the benefit of the child, shall cease to have effect, but without prejudice to the recovery of any arrears which are due under the order or agreement at the date of the adoption order.
- (2) After an adoption order has been made in respect of a child who is illegitimate, no order requiring the father of the child to make payments specifically for the benefit of the child shall be made unless the adoption order was made on the application of the mother of the child alone.

23 Intestacies, etc.⁷¹

- (1) Where, at any time after the making of an adoption order, the adopter or the adopted person or any other person dies intestate in respect of any real or personal property (other than personal property subject to an entailed interest under a disposition to which paragraph (3) does not apply), that property shall devolve in all respects as if the adopted person were the child of the adopter and were not the child of any other person.⁷²
- (2) For all the purposes of the law relating to the indefeasible right of a person to succeed to the personal property of the person’s ascendants, an adopted person shall be deemed to be the child of the adopter and not the child of any other person.⁷³

- (3) In any disposition of real or personal property made, whether by instrument inter vivos or by will (including codicil), after the date of an adoption order –
- (a) any reference (whether express or implied) to the child or children of the adopter shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as, or as including, a reference to the adopted person;

 - (c) any reference (whether express or implied) to a person related to the adopted person in any degree shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as a reference to the person who would be related to the adopted person in that degree if the adopted person were the child of the adopter and were not the child of any other person.⁷⁴
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (3), a disposition made by will or codicil shall be treated as made on the date of the death of the testator.
- (5) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that an adopted child born before a natural child shall rank as principal heir in preference to the natural child.
- (6) In the application of the law regarding the devolution of acquired real property (acquêts) and personal property (meubles) and for the purposes of the construction of any such disposition as is mentioned in this Article, an adopted person shall be deemed to be related to any other person being the child or adopted child of the adopter or (in the case of a joint adoption) of either of the adopters –

 - (b) in any other case, as brother or sister of the half-blood.⁷⁵
- (7) Notwithstanding anything in this Article, an executor of the will or an administrator of the personal estate of a deceased person may distribute any personal property to or among the persons entitled thereto without having ascertained that no adoption order has been made by virtue of which any person is or may be entitled to any interest therein, and shall not be liable to any such person of whose claim the executor of the will or an administrator of the personal estate has not had notice at the time of the distribution; but nothing in this paragraph shall prejudice the right of any such person to follow the property, or any property representing it, into the hands of any person who may have acquired it by means of devolution or descent.
- (8) Where an adoption order is made in respect of a person who has been previously adopted, the previous adoption shall be disregarded for the purposes of this Article in relation to the devolution of any property on the intestacy of, or any right to the personal property of, any person dying after the date of the subsequent adoption order, and in relation to any disposition of property made, or taking effect on the death of a person dying, after that date.

- (9) References in this Article to an adoption order and to an adopted person include references to an adoption order made before 24th November 1963 either under this Law or under the Adoption of Children (Jersey) Law 1947 and to a person adopted under such an order, but nothing in this Article shall affect the devolution of any property on the intestacy of, or any right to the personal property of, any person who died before that date, or affect any disposition made before that date.⁷⁶

Recalling that each State should take, as a matter of priority, appropriate measures to enable the child to remain in the care of his or her family of origin,

Recognizing that intercountry adoption may offer the advantage of a permanent family to a child for whom a suitable family cannot be found in his or her State of origin,

Convinced of the necessity to take measures to ensure that intercountry adoptions are made in the best interests of the child and with respect for his or her fundamental rights, and to prevent the abduction, the sale of, or traffic in children,

Desiring to establish common provisions to this effect, taking into account the principles set forth in international instruments, in particular the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, of 20 November 1989, and the United Nations Declaration on Social and Legal Principles relating to the Protection and Welfare of Children, with Special Reference to Foster Placement and Adoption Nationally and Internationally (General Assembly Resolution 41/85, of 3 December 1986),

The recognition of an adoption may be refused in a contracting State only if the adoption is manifestly contrary to its public policy, taking into account the best interests of the child.

Article 25

Any Contracting State may declare to the depositary of the convention that it will not be bound under this Convention to recognise adoptions made in accordance with an agreement concluded by application of Article 39, paragraph 2.

Article 26

1. The recognition of an adoption includes recognition of
 - (a) the legal parent-child relationship between the child and his or her adoptive parents;
 - (b) parental responsibility of the adoptive parents for the child;
 - (c) the termination of a pre-existing legal relationship between the child and his or her mother and father, if the adoption has this effect in the Contracting State where it was made.
2. In the case of an adoption having the effect of terminating a pre-existing legal parent-child relationship, the child shall enjoy in the receiving State, and in any other Contracting State where the adoption is recognised, rights equivalent to those resulting from adoptions having this effect in each such State.
3. The preceding paragraphs shall not prejudice the application of any provision more favourable for the child, in force in the Contracting State which recognises the adoption.

Article 27

1. Where an adoption granted in the State of origin does not have the effect of terminating a pre-existing legal parent-child relationship, it may, in the receiving State which recognises the adoption under the Convention, be converted into an adoption having such an effect –

- (a) if the law of the receiving State so permits; and
 - (b) if the consents referred to in Article 4, sub-paragraphs c and d, have been or are given for the purpose of such an adoption.
2. Article 23 applies to the decision converting the adoption.

CHAPTER VI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 28

The Convention does not affect any law of a State of origin which requires that the adoption of a child habitually resident within that State take place in that State or which prohibits the child's placement in, or transfer to, the receiving State prior to adoption.

Article 29

There shall be no contact between the prospective adoptive parents and the child's parents or any other person who has care of the child until the requirements of Article 4, sub-paragraphs a to c, and Article 5, sub-paragraph a, have been met, unless the adoption takes place within a family or unless the contact is in compliance with the conditions established by the competent authority of the State of origin.

Article 30

1. The competent authorities of a Contracting State shall ensure that information held by them concerning the child's origin, in particular information concerning the identity of his or her parents, as well as the medical history, is preserved.
2. They shall ensure that the child or his or her representative has access to such information, under appropriate guidance, in so far as is permitted by the law of that State.

Article 31

Without prejudice to Article 30, personal data gathered or transmitted under the Convention, especially data referred to in Articles 15 and 16, shall be used only for the purposes for which they were gathered or transmitted.

Article 32

1. No one shall derive improper financial or other gain from an activity related to an intercountry adoption.
2. Only costs and expenses, including reasonable professional fees of persons involved in the adoption, may be charged or paid.

3. The directors, administrators and employees of bodies involved in an adoption shall not receive remuneration which is unreasonably high in relation to services rendered.

Article 33

A competent authority which finds that any provision of the Convention has not been respected or that there is a serious risk that it may not be respected, shall immediately inform the Central Authority of its State. This Central Authority shall be responsible for ensuring that appropriate measures are taken.

Article 34

If the competent authority of the State of destination of a document so requests, a translation certified as being in conformity with the original must be furnished. Unless otherwise provided, the costs of such translation are to be borne by the prospective adoptive parents.

Article 35

The competent authorities of the contracting States shall act expeditiously in the process of adoption.

Article 36

In relation to a State which has two or more systems of law with regard to adoption applicable in different territorial units –

- (a) any reference to habitual residence in that State shall be construed as referring to habitual residence in a territorial unit of that State;
- (b) any reference to the law of that State shall be construed as referring to the law in force in the relevant territorial unit;
- (c) any reference to the competent authorities or to the public authorities of that State shall be construed as referring to those authorised to act in the relevant territorial unit;
- (d) any reference to the accredited bodies of that State shall be construed as referring to bodies accredited in the relevant unit.

Article 37

In relation to a State which with regard to adoption has two or more systems of law applicable to different categories of persons, any reference to the law of that State shall be construed as referring to the legal system specified by the law of that State.

Article 38

A State within which different territorial units have their own rules of law in respect of adoption shall not be bound to apply the Convention where a State with a unified system of law would not be bound to do so.

Article 39

1. The convention does not affect any international instrument to which Contracting States are Parties and which contains provisions on matters governed by the Convention, unless a contrary declaration is made by the States parties to such instrument.
2. Any Contracting State may enter into agreements with one or more other Contracting States, with a view to improving the application of the Convention in their mutual relations. These agreements may derogate only from the provisions of Articles 14 to 16 and 18 to 21. The States which have concluded such an agreement shall transmit a copy to the depositary of the Convention.

Article 40

No reservation to the Convention shall be permitted.

Article 41

The Convention shall apply in every case where an application pursuant to Article 14 has been received after the Convention has entered into force in the receiving State and the State of origin.

Article 42

The Secretary General of the Hague Conference on Private International Law shall at regular intervals convene a Special Commission in order to review the practical operation of the Convention.

“ARTICLE 29

PROVISIONS AS TO EXISTING DE FACTO ADOPTIONS

Where, on the first day of January, 1948, any infant was in the custody of, and being brought up, maintained and educated by any person or two spouses jointly as his, her or their own child under any de facto adoption, and had for a period of not less than two years before that date been in such custody, and been so brought up, maintained and educated, the Court may, upon the application of such person or spouses, and notwithstanding that the applicant is a male and the infant a female, make an adoption order authorizing him, her or them to adopt the infant without requiring the consent of any parent or guardian of the infant to be obtained, upon being satisfied that in all the circumstances of the case it is just and equitable and for the welfare of the infant that no such consent should be required and that an adoption order should be made.”
